ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful to God Almighty for everything HE has blessed me with. I would like to thank HIM for giving me the strength to pursue Ph.D. what many call a milestone. Nevertheless, my guide, Dr. Ganesh Kawadia keeps reminding me that Ph.D is not an end in itself but the beginning of a plethora of research opportunities lying ahead. I am fortunate enough to have a stalwart in Dr. Ganesh Kawadia to guide me through my research learning while taking the baby steps when working in the UGC Project with him.

I am lucky to have been associated with School of Economics, DAVV Indore. The academic and emotional support lent by all the faculty members has always been overwhelming. I would especially like to thank Dr. Vishakha Kutumbale for her words of consistent encouragement. I am grateful for the ambience created by my fellow researchers at Research Room that motivated me to love my workplace more than the Hostel room!! However, with deep gratitude, I would like to thank all my hostel friends especially Ms. Geetanjali Sharma for being so supportive in times of need and critical when I needed a reality check!! I will fall short in expressing my gratitude if I do not mention the homely treatment by the non-teaching staff of the Department.

It is said that Ph.D is no singular effort and indeed, it is true. There were many people who were involved at different points of time enriching the whole Ph.D learning with varied amounts of contribution and I am grateful to all of them from the bottom of my heart.

Last but not the least; I would especially like to thank my parents for being with me through my ups and downs and invigorating me to never give up.

I dedicate my work to all those praying hands who have upheld me in their prayers.
