ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“The essence of all beautiful art, all great art is gratitude”.

From the inception with profound love I owe my sincere gratitude to the god “The Almighty”, for his immense unconditional grace and love showered upon me throughout my life and for giving me strength, perseverance and blessings to pursue this task and accomplish it successfully, and for being my anchor throughout the hard times of my study.

An individual can achieve the aim only when he or she is being assisted and supported by others. In the course of this research I have been fortunate enough to receive continuous assistance and support from various people and sources which helped me on to the successful completion of this venture.

First of all I extend my sincere thanks to “MGM Institute of Health Sciences Kamothe” for providing me an opportunity to be a student of this esteemed institution and to conduct the study successfully.

“Every great person is always being helped by everybody; for their gift is to get good out of all things and all persons.”

John Ruskin

My heartfelt thanks to Professor and my guide Dr Prakash Doke as I have been extremely fortunate to have motivator like him as driving force behind this study with his valuable suggestions, guidance, encouragement and support. I can’t forget 24/7 guidance provided by him in completing thesis and resolving the difficulties since inception of this study.

My dedicated and sincere thanks to my co guide Dr Mary Mathews, Principal MGM College of Nursing Vashi for giving her vital suggestions, timely advice, constructive guidance and encouragement during and throughout this study. I consider it a great honor and privilege to have completed the study under her supervision.

I extend my sincere thanks to Dr A G Valand, Head Of Department, GMC Department of Pathology Mumbai along with their team for extending their co-operation and granted me permission to conduct examining and interpreting Pap smear samples under the study without any interruption. I am also grateful to Dr Sarla Menon, Associate Professor, GMC Mumbai for her invaluable and enlightening suggestions throughout the study.

I am grateful to all the experts from various fields who validated instruments for data collection, for their invaluable and enlightening suggestions.

I express my special sense of gratitude to Mrs Deshpande Aruna with regard to the statistical data management analysis and giving meaning to hardwork of thesis on given topic.

I am obliged to Dr Patole DHO Alibaug and all the Medical Officers of respective Primary Health Centers and Subcenters and their team members including ASHA, ANM, LHV and staff members for help in arranging facilities throughout study, their eminent support and suggestions for making this study a grand success.

I am obliged to Dean, Sir J.J. Group of Hospitals, Mumbai for granting permission to conduct study in their institution.

I am very much thankful to Mr. Vinay Dinkar for editing this study and helped give it a polished presentation.

I extend sincere thanks to all the participants in the study who were the heart and soul of the study. I also express my thanks to each and every one who has helped me to complete this study.
My indebted gratitude and whole hearted love to my friends who helped me, for their constant support, advice and encouragement. I am grateful to my classmates for giving valuable suggestions throughout the study.

I am thankful to the Chief Librarian and Library Staff of MGM University, Institute of Nursing Education, S.N.D.T.Women’s University, Tata Hospital Digital Library, G.M.C Central Library who presented help in constant guidance and searching review of literatures required for the study.

There is no satisfaction and happiness until we realize that we have accomplished something. It is, therefore, with heartfelt gratitude that I wish to acknowledge all those who have enriched, contributed and crystallized the study.

I am thankful to all my well wishers for their support and valued suggestions in improving the study and women who willingly participated in this study, without their willingness and cooperation the study itself would not have been successful.

Finally yet importantly, my family deserves much of the credit for the gifts of their love, wisdom and work ethics which endured and inspired me in my difficult times, keeping me motivating and putting up with my endless efforts of completing the study. I am thankful to my husband, parents, and son for their constant support and contributions that helped me to complete this study.
