ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Research studies are accomplished beseeching guidance from the masters in the field. This thesis too has the fragrance of co-operation and assistance received from quite a significant number of institutions to accomplish this research work.

I acknowledge with deep sense of gratitude the co-operation and assistance received from the governing authorities of a number of institutions for allowing me access to material worth-studying for quality output.

In all sincerity and humility, I express my indebtedness to my supervisor, respected Dr. Soti Shivendra Chandra for his constant encouragement, keen interest, prompt disposal of a variety of points, queries and curiosities related to this study from the very beginning. In spite of health constraints, his ever-readiness to spare time for guiding me on this research study, in-depth knowledge by virtue of his life-long experience of the teaching learning field, critical approach on the different variables of this study, positive attitude, emotional support and untiring zeal, have always heightened my morale. My respect and devotion will ever be for him.

The library in-charges and staff at various institutions –Ch. Charan Singh University, Meerut, Meerut College, Meerut, N.C.E.R.T., New Delhi, Gandhi Smiriti, New Delhi, Gandhi Museum, New Delhi, U.N.E.S.C.O., New Delhi, D.A.V. College Kharkhauda etc. have provided the researcher a great deal of useful information of the related field. I am extremely thankful to them for their outstanding services.
The Principals, wing-incharges, teachers, staff and above all students of various schools where the practical part of this study was completed too deserve my sincerest thanks. But for their co-operation and assistance, this work would not have been possible.

Honorary Secretary of the college where I am presently working Dr. Rajive Atri, Dr. Manjula D Gupta for her help on statistical treatments of the data analyzed in this study, Dr. Satyaveer Singh Chaudhary for ideas on graphical presentations, Dr. Vinita Sharma for giving some inspiring stories, Dr. Navneet Singh for enlightening on development of education system in India, all the vivacious young professional colleagues for giving novel ideas, friends, well-wishers, system professionals and professionals giving a good shape to the thesis deserve appreciation and admiration for their wholehearted support. Multifarious nature of assistance of Shri Krishna Kumar, a faculty in Stream of Arts, D.A.V. College, Kharkhuda has been in tune with his name. Dr. Anju Tyagi, Lecturer (Drawing & Painting) and Head, Department of Arts, D.A.V. College, Kharkhuda too has been very helpful in giving artistic touch to some of the charts and sketches made by me to teach Civic Sense to students. To cut short, the whole of D.A.V. family has been very helpful to me in one form or the other.

I am heartily indebted to Respected Prof. (Mrs.) Neerja Saxena, Head, Department of Education, Meerut College, Meerut for the the final proceedings of conducting the Pre-submission Seminar under approval from Respected Principal of the college in the gracious presence of Prof. P.C. Sharma, all her team memers and the scholars pursuing
M.Ed. Their suggestions for improvement have been incorporated in the thesis.

I am deeply indebted to my parents, my wife and children who have been great source of strength to me in accomplishment of this study.

I dedicate this work to my late grand-parents whose blessings for longevity and wisdom every morning have always inspired me to be devoted to noble pursuits.
