Acknowledgement

In the present world of competition there is a race of existence in which those are having will to come forward succeed.

First of all, I would like to thank to supreme power, The Almighty God, which is obviously the one has always guided me to work on the right path. Next to Him are my parents who are greatly indebted for me, brought up with love and encouragement at this stage of preparations.

I am feeling obliged in taking opportunity to sincerely thank one to the Chairperson of the University, Respected Shree Tarsem Garg ji for being so supportive to the students.

Special thanks to Dr. Suvarna Prasad, Professor and Head, Department of Biochemistry, MMIMSR, Mullana, worthy guide for making my thesis in reality. She has supported me in showing right direction, supervision and inspiration to me. It is my privilege to work under such an academician and profound scholar in the field of Biochemistry.

With high esteem and profound regards, I take the privilege to acknowledge my gratitude to my worthy teacher, Late Dr. Rajesh Pandey for carving another milestone in my academic journey.

Words are inadequate to express thanks to Dr. Neeru Bhaskar, Dr. K. S. Sodhi, Dr. Jasbir Singh, Dr. S. K. Aggarwal, Dr. Shikha Mahajan, Dr. Sunita Manhas, Dr. Richa Goel and Dr. Jyoti Aggarwal for their timely help and valuable suggestion in completion of this study.

I would like to thankful to Mr. SM Pandey, and Dr. Prabhaker Mishra, for their valuable help in data analysis of present research work.

I cannot stop myself thanking the Principal of the institution Dr. B. K. Aggarwal, Dr. Amit Mittal, Vice-Principal and the members of Institutional Research Committee who were always helpful and without their suggestions, the research would not have been successful.

I am also thankful to all the technical staff members in the Department of Biochemistry, MMIMSR, Mullana, for their help whenever needed. I must also thanks my study subjects without whose cooperation I would not have succeeded in this work.
Last but not the least, I am fortunate to have a loving wife, Mrs. Sonu Jangra, son Gaurav Jangra and daughter Khushi Jangra, whose love, patience and affectionate inspiration, have carried me through, all the difficulties during research work and motivated me to complete this work on time.
