ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to place on record, my sincere thanks to a great number of people whose contributions in assorted ways have helped me in conducting the research and making this thesis a reality. Some of them deserved special mention and it is my pleasure to express my gratitude through this humble acknowledgment.

In the first place I would like to record my gratitude to my guide and supervisor Professor Dr. K.C. Sankaranarayanan, (former) Director of School of Applied Economics, CUSAT, Cochin 22, for his unwavering support and encouragement in bringing this work to its culmination. His patience and openness to learning new things truly inspired me in the pursuit of my research.

I gratefully thank Dr. T.M. Jacob for guiding me through the technicalities of Econometrics and making the mundane and lengthy task of working with the wriggly numbers of vast data on the daily rates over fifteen years easier and manageable.

I am indebted to Dr. Rajasenan, Dean and professor School of Social Sciences CUSAT, Cochin 22, for his expert advice and timely guidance at a crucial stage of my research.

Dr. Jeremy(late) of RBI, who was there during the early stages of my research and was invaluable in choosing the appropriate research methodology. He also introduced me to Causality tests. I am ever grateful for his help.
Many thanks go to Dr. Robert Mcnown, Professor of Economics, University of Colorado for directing me to the right Econometric technique and for demystifying the relevant software Eviews.

Mr. Cherian Varghese who was at Geojit Financial Services deserves special mention for facilitating data collection on share prices which were not available on-line during the initial stages. I am also thankful to Mr. Alex Mathew of Geojit Financial Services for providing many valuable insights on share price behavior.

My heartfelt gratitude goes to Dr. G.P.C Nayar, Chairman, SCMS Group and the Management, Faculty Members and all other supporting staff of the School of Communication and Management Studies (SCMS), Cochin, where I, myself am a faculty member. I would like to specially acknowledge Corporate Directors Mr. Pramod. P Thevannoor and Prof. Radha Thevannoor, for all the encouragement they gave. I have benefited a lot by the advice and moral support of my colleagues especially Dr. Poornima Narayan and Dr. Mercia Selva Malar Prof K J Paulose and Dr V. Raman Nair.

Words cannot express the love and appreciation that goes to my family especially my husband Mr.P G George, my daughter Priya, my father Mr P.Scaria and my mother-in-law Mrs Mary George Tharakan for their unfailing support, love and persistent confidence in me. Their invaluable sacrifices and prayers have indeed brought this work to its culmination and I dedicate this work to them.

Above all, I thank God almighty for His abundant mercy and blessings for making this happen.

Kochi 683 030
15th November 2007

Filomina. P. Scaria