ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my heartfelt honors to my Supervisor Dr. J. S. Somvanshi, Reader and Head, Department of English, Shri Agrasen P.G. College, Mauanipur, Jhansi (U.P.) for unflinching and excellent guidance and valuable suggestion at almost every stage in the progress of the present investigation. It is no exaggeration to say that without his inspiring and day-to-day affectionate gestures the work simply could not have been completed. My Supervisor not met only in a formal sense but intrinsically devoted to shape the work in full capacity also. I have no words to depict their immoveable galilees of head and heart.

I am thankful to Dr. S.K. Kapoor, Principal and other members of Shri Agrasen P.G. College, Mauanipur, Jhansi (U.P.), who have ungrudgingly extended help to me whenever needed.

I am thankful to Dr. V.N. Pandey, Principal Bundelkhand College, Jhansi for forwarding the application for the Registration to carry out the research work.

I am deeply indebted to The Director, Indo-American Center of International Studies, Hyderabad for providing me research materials to pursue the research work. It is IACIS that I found a congenial atmosphere to sustain the literary quest. The American Center: Embassy of U.S.A. has also proved much advantageous to me. The help of The Director, Central Institute of English and Foreign Language, Hyderabad is also acknowledged.
I convey my sincere thanks to my brother Narendra Sahu and sisters Neetu and Nidhi for their unvaluable assistance. My special and sincere thanks go to my husband Dr. D.K. Sahu, Lecturer, Department of Physics, Institute of Basic Sciences, Bundelkhand University, Jhansi (U.P.) and my sweat beti Manshvi D Sahu.

At last but not the least, I express my most sincere gratitude and regards to my dear and respected parents Shri Har Govind Sahu and Smt. Geeta Devi and in-laws Shri R. G. Sahu and Smt. Kaushilya Devi for their affection, assistance and constant encouragement.
