ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

No words can adequately express the sense of gratitude that I owe to my supervisor, Professor V. K. Sehgal who has been a source of constant inspiration and affectionate guidance. It was really a pleasure of great deal under him because of his frank discussions and painstaking efforts. Needless to add, this work has been completed because of his very able and valuable guidance and working under him was a rewarding experience.

My greatful thanks are due to Professor Dr. P. K. Kapur, Director, Deptt. Of Operation Research, University of Delhi and Dr. A. K. Bardhan, Delhi University. Who has supported me and gave me all help and encourgement.

I am also thankful to Dr. J.P.N. Mishra, Principal Dr. R.P. Richhariya P.G. College for all help and encouragement.

Last. But not the least. I sincerely acknowledge blessing showered on me by my parents and good wishes to me from my all family members.
