ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the very onset I express my sincere worship and thanks to The Almighty, without whose grace nothing would have been possible.

The study was completed with the help of a number of persons and agencies of education. Now it is my proud privilege to thank them all.

With profound sense of devotion and indebtedness, I express my appreciation and gratitude to my supervising teacher Dr. T. V. Thulasidharan, Professor and Director, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University for his scholarly guidance, invaluable suggestions, constructive criticisms, constant inspiration and meticulous supervision of my research work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. A. Sudharma, Professor and former Director, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, who rendered valuable help for the successful completion of this work.

I am indebted to Dr. P. M. Jaleel, former Professor and Director, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University and former Director of State Council of Educational Research and Training (SCERT) for the constant encouragement and enlightenment showered on me to compile this study successfully.

I owe my in-depth thanks to Dr. Sam Sanatharaj, former Professor and Head of Psychology, University of Kerala, who rendered valuable help for the title finalisation of this work.
I am indebted to Mr. A. T. Anilkumar and Mr. C. D. Shiju Das, Librarians, School of Pedagogical Sciences for making available the library materials needed for the study.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Anu G. S, Senior Research Fellow, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, who rendered valuable help for the successful completion of this work.

I whole heartedly remember with gratitude the school authorities, teachers, pupils and other staff members for rendering their help in data collection.

I am thankful to my college and school authorities, colleagues and co-workers for their support and encouragement given to me during the study.

Finally, I wish to place on record my indebtedness to my parents, my wife Mrs. Tintu Prakash., and my children Axel and Abel who have contributed to make this venture a reality and success.
