I would like to convey my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Dr. N. Devanna for having given his excellent support and invaluable guidance for my research work. His marvelous pieces of advice have intensely motivated and enlighten me to proceed on this project. During my research work, he always encouraged and put me out of trouble by applying his treasure of knowledge and enormous experience in synthetic organic field. He trained me how to apply scientific ideas in practical during my lab work as well as theoretically during my thesis writing session. His supportive nature and thought-provoking meetings have stimulated me to complete the thesis successfully and made me to reach my destination.

My praise belongs to respected Dr. K. Nagaiah, Scientist, IICT, F.C.L who let me complete the highest level of academic studies. It was his mercy that maintained everything favorable to my research. He is the person, who had the greatest influence on my research. It was a wonderful experience to work under his Co-Supervision. His intellect guided me to overcome all barriers in research.

I am very grateful to venerable Dr. Venkat Narsaiah Akkirala, scientist F.C.L, IICT for his time less support in every aspect in my research-work. I am so thankful for his timely suggestions and contributions to make my project work a grand success, without whose support I would not have been moved to further improvements in my work.

With great pleasure, I acknowledge my special sincere thanks to Dr. G. Nagaiah, secretary and correspondent of Siddartha P.G College for providing necessary infrastructure facilities and enabling me to complete my research work successful.
I immensely extend my special thanks to respected Venkateswarlu Yekkirala for his valuable and precious contribution to complete my thesis.

“A friend in need is a friend indeed” I feel proud and acknowledge my lovable thanks to all my friends other colleagues for contributing their help, valuable time, and cooperation in many a way throughout the dissertation work.

Vasu you are my loved one and left the world but never leave my heart .I am sincerely dedicating the thesis title to my demised friend P. Srinivas.

I thank all my teachers who shaped and inspired my carrier.
