Acknowledgement

It gives me immense pleasure to express my heartfelt and sincere gratitude to each and everyone who has been a part of this journey- for their encouragement, help, guidance and co-operation in the completion of my research work “Neo liberal State and Higher Education: A Study in the context of Assam”. The work has seen the light of the day because they were there, in whatever best way they could.

Firstly, I express my sincere gratitude to my PhD supervisor Prof. Nani Gopal Mahanta, Professor and Head, Department of Political Science, Gauhati University, for his expert guidance and continuous support throughout the period. Prof. Mahanta, who was also my teacher during my Masters programme in the department, has always been a source of inspiration due to his scholarly erudition. I am grateful to him for patiently guiding me in the stages of inertia during the research, always encouraging me to stay motivated and carry on despite challenges. Without his guidance and support, completion of this work would not have been possible.

I am grateful to all the faculty members of the Department of Political Science, Gauhati University- Prof. Monirul Hussain, Prof. Sandhya Goswami, Prof. Alaka Sarmah, Prof. Akhil Ranjan Dutta, Prof. Jayanta Krishna Sarmah, Dr. Dhruba Pratim Sharma, Dr. Shubhrajeet Konwer, Dr. Rubul Patgiri, Dr. Barasa Deka, Dr. Joanna Mahjebeen and Mr. Vikas Tripathi for their continuous encouragement and valuable advice for the betterment of my work. I cannot thank each one of them enough. A special mention goes to Dr. Shubhrajeet Konwer for going out of his way and for his untiring help and guidance on many occasions, and Prof. Akhil Ranjan Dutta for his expert comments and advice which I received on various occasions.
My sincere gratitude to the staff in the Department of Political Science, Gauhati University- Naba da, Gurung baideu, Binita baideu, Mukul da, Manoj da, Sarma da, Gülük da, Chandan da for their help and co-operation all the time.

I am thankful to the Librarians and the staff of Krishna Kanta Handique Library, Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, Delhi University Library, ICHR Regional Library, Assam Legislative Assembly Library for their help and co-operation.

I am very much grateful to all the participants whom I have interviewed and have taken information from. Sincere gratitude to them for sparing their precious time and for sharing their views and opinions on matters pertinent to the research.

I am thankful to my colleagues in the Department of Political Science, Cotton University- Dr. Shantanu Chakravarty, Dr. Paramita Dey, Dr. Dilip Gogoi, Dr. Jilly Sarkar, Dr. Sabrina Iqbal Sircar and Dr. Rajiv Acharya for their continuous encouragement towards carrying out the research. I am grateful to former Head of the Department of Political Science, Cotton University, Dr. Purobi Sharma, for always providing me with suggestions and motivation to carry out the research to the best of my ability. I express heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Dilip Gogoi for his expert advice on many aspects of my research which helped me remove many of the confusions and ambiguities that I faced in the study. Dr. Jilly Sarkar, my colleague, I don’t think I can ever thank her enough. From advising about time table to chapterisation, she took notice of everything. I am indebted to her for always being there in my times of joys and despair alike. I am thankful to Dr. Daisy Das, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Cotton University, for her time, kindness and help. That I could complete my research along with my full time job at Cotton University without opting for study leave, is to a great extent due to the support of my colleagues at my department at Cotton University.

I will forever be grateful to Dhritiman Deka, for literally always being there at every hour whenever I was in need of some help. I am thankful Pragyan Bhuyan for his views and opinions as a student leader and for his help whenever I asked for it. I am also thankful to Saurav Mahanta for his timely help.

I consider myself truly fortunate to have an amazing bunch of friends who are always there, no matter what. Punjan Das, I cannot thank you enough for always being the friend in need. Manash Gohain has come to the rescue during a crucial time when I was need of much help, and I will forever be grateful. I am thankful to Tinam Borah, Mayurpankhi Borah, Debashree Saikia, Vhuyashi Das, Sahil Hussain, Arunima Goswami, Brechivorna Talukdar, Juthika Das, Mofidur Rahman, Nurul Hasan, Jnanashree Borah and all my friends for their support and encouragement.

I am most thankful to my parents for everything that they do for me, for their constant motivation to rise up in the ladder of academic excellence. Without their support and encouragement, I could never accomplish this endeavour. Words will always fail to express how much indebted I am to you both, but I hope to try and repay someday no matter how impossible it is. And I hope to compensate for all the responsibilities and everything that I missed out on during the course of the study. I am thankful to my sister and brother-in-law for their support and encouragement throughout the period of research. My love and affection to my nephews Bhabishnu and Bhrajishnu- the joys of our lives. I want to thank my other family members as well- for their love, encouragement and support.
I am grateful to each and everyone who has extended their support, guidance and motivation in different ways in the course of the research. Any lapse and shortcoming in the work, however, lies on my part.
