ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The consummation of this thesis work would not have been possible had it not been with the invaluable guidance, cooperation and inspiration of a number of people. ‘Thanks Giving’ appeared to be very simple but today I find it the most difficult job and wish had there been some parameter for estimating one’s feelings, my work would have been made easier. These humble words, expressions and gratitude cannot really convey the deep feelings of my heart.

It is my profound privilege to express my deep feelings of gratitude to my esteemed, learned and revered teacher and my Research Advisor Dr. D. Nirmala, Assistant Professor, for the benevolence, the encouragement, the valuable suggestions and constant guidance rendered at each step that helped me in completing my thesis. She has been the real inspiration for me in pursuing this research work. Her apt and innovative comments made the things easier for me as I could understand the various dimensions of the subject in the proper perspective.

It is a pleasure to express my gratitude whole heartedly to my Doctoral Committee Members Dr. P. Ilango, Professor of the Department of Social Work, Bharathidasan University and Dr. A. Umesh Samuel Jebaseelan, Associate Professor, Bishop Heber College whose sincere guidance, prudent approach and endless support from the initial stage to this level enabled me to develop a better understanding of the study.

At the outset, I place on record my sincere gratitude to Dr. V. Sethuramalingam, Professor and Head, Dept. of Social Work, Bharathidasan University for his constant inspiration and unfailing attention because of which, I was able to undertake this endeavor successfully.
Nobody ever does a project all by himself / herself. Behind every successful work, there is a long line of people who make it possible. I acknowledge the keen interest, valuable suggestion and encouragement of my faculty members Dr. R. Mangaleswaran, Syndicate Member of Bharathidasan University, Dr. J.O. Jeryda Gnanajane Eljo, Assistant Professor and Mr. N. Rajavel, Assistant Professor, Department of Social Work. I am highly obliged and can never forget the help and support rendered by them during the course.

I am immensely grateful to my well-wisher Ms. N. Priyanka, Guest Lecturer of the department. She always encouraged me and never let my spirit go down through her warm and unwavering support. She motivated me in every possible way. And I extend my sincere thanks to Dr. A. Subramani, Assistant Section Officer, Department of Social Work for his kind cooperation.

I may fail in my duty if I don’t thank all the Correspondents, Head Masters, Head Mistresses and the Married Women Teachers of the Aided Higher Secondary Schools at Tiruvarur District. Without whose help, this task would not have been completed in time.

The words can never express my feelings of deep gratitude, indebtedness and reverence to Mr. Clayton Fonceca, Placement Officer, Bishop Heber College who has always shown an exemplary keenness and interest in perpetuating my research aptitude.

My special acknowledgement to Mr. Jesus Raja, Statistician for helping me with statistical analysis of my research study.

I extend my special words of gratitude to my co-research scholars Ms. O. Aisha Manju, Ms. A. Zunatha Banu, Mr. S. Sridhar, Sr. Jeeva Francis, Mr. B. Lakshmi Narayanan and Mr. M. Ignatius who have been a source of moral support to me and have extended their helping hands personally and professionally.
Let me place on record the unfailing co-operation and timely assistance extended by all the Ph.D. Research Scholars, M.Phil. Scholars, II and I year M.S.W. students and my dear friends who are directly or indirectly associated with this work. Without them this work would not have been materialized.

I am immensely grateful to my well-wisher Fr. Thomas Alva Edison for his timely help during my summation of the thesis.

My father is always just beside me keeping his hand on my shoulder to give all the support what a father can give to his dearest daughter to see her on the top of the world. My mother’s unconditional love and care are always with me. She always wanted to see me to achieve the apex of education; and I am proud that I am still climbing the apex because of her love and wishes. My parents were first and the last to believe that I can achieve my dreams. I don’t like to thank my appa and amma by means of just few words. Today I bow down in front of them for everything. My sisters, brothers, in-laws and other family members deserve special thanks for their help and endless standing with me during the entire project work. Their sacrifice and support enabled me to stand confidently against all difficult times.

I am extraordinarily fortunate in having Mr. Suresh Kumar as my better half and I will forever be thankful to him whose dedication, love and persistent confidence in me, has taken the load off my shoulder and who encouraged and helped me with love and care at every stage of my personal and academic life, and longed to see this achievement come true.

Last but not least, I am thankful to all those who remained unnamed for their co-operation and generous help.

(R. Mercinah)