Acknowledgements

I bow in reverence to almighty God, the cherisher and sustainer, whose benign benediction gave me the zeal and vigor for the compilation of this work.

The successful completion of any work is a matter of great endurance, but because of the help, cooperation and support of many, associated directly or indirectly makes the job entirely enjoyable and simple. Similarly in the endeavor of completion of my thesis, many gave me a helping hand and it is my duty and pleasure to express my sense of appreciation to them.

At first, I sincerely wish to express my thankfulness to vice-chancellor and Dean of Bundelkhand University, Jhansi for allowing me to pursue my PhD from the University. I want to give thanks to the Director, Sanjay Gandhi Post Graduate Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow, for providing me permission to do my research work at his Institute.

I find it a great honor, pride and privilege to express my profound gratitude, indebtedness and personal regards for my supervisor Dr. P.K.Pandey for his constant encouragement, invaluable guidance, keen interest, intellectual interference, never-ending support and moral support. He was always available to help me all through my research tenure.

I feel fortune to accomplish my research work under the guidance of Prof. Suraksha Agrawal, Head, Department of Medical Genetics, Sanjay Gandhi Post Graduate Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow. Words are inadequate to express my heart-full gratitude to her for illuminative guidance, constant inspiration, support, patience, encouragement, temperament and kindness to support me during ups and downs in the course of the study. I shall remain indebted to her for her constant motherly touch throughout my thesis.

It is a great pleasure to express my thanks and regards to the distinguished faculty of the department of Medical Genetics, Dr. Subha Phadke, Dr. Balraj Mittal, Dr. Sarita Agarwal and Dr. Mandakini Pradhan for their spontaneous help and encouragement.

I sincerely thank Dr. Parsuram, Medical Supredent Mungair, Bihar, for his timely help in Sample collection for my study.

I am also very much thankful to Mr. Rajmani Kumar, tribal blood collection was very tough job but he made very easy.

Profound thanks are also due to the support of Faisal Sir, who always came up with invaluable suggestions, constant encouragement and moral support during the course of this study.
There are some seniors, colleagues and friends whose love and regard which I got through the years, Vivek Sir, Atul, Sudha di, Piyush, Sanjeev, Manorma, Padma, Gaurav, Ariz, Tabrez, and Shradha are just a few names.

I am very thankful to Mishra ji, Neera ji, Shashank bhaiya, Dua ji, Anand ji and KC ji for their help, support and cooperation in difficult times.

I would like to give special thanks to Sanjay Bhaiya for his excellent help in syntax mistakes and editing thesis text.

I owe my deep regards to my sister Minal for her encouragement and moral support.

I would like to thank my wife, Amna for her endless support and cooperation during the compilation of the thesis. She is not just my better half but also my best friend with whom I can confide all my problems. Her presence has given a new dimension to my life.

Above all, I express my deep sense of gratitude to all my teachers for their academics, training, encouragement and help during the years of my studentship without which it would have been impossible to relish climbing the ladder of education and research.

Thanks are also due to Department of Biotechnology Technology (DBT), New Delhi for funding on going scientific project in the lab, which supplied me with all the necessities for my PhD work.

My efforts will remain incomplete if I do not express my gratitude and indebtedness to my parents whose blessings stood by me at all odds and for their constant inspiration and encouragements and always patting at times of achievements and always correcting me at times of needs. It would have been impossible to reach the present destination without their support. I owe a lot to my Bhaiya (Nasim) for their constant care and affection.

I wish to thank all those who have helped me in one or the other way to complete this work.

I am thankful to the God Almighty, for putting such wonderful people in my life and bestowing His Warmth and Affection through them.
