ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As I reach this milestone in my research work, I am filled with gusto and grateful. I bow before the bountiful Lord to have destined Dr. Jai Singh M.Sc., Ph.D., Reader Chemistry Department, D.N. College, Meerut the task of guiding me in this venture. All my verbal assets fall short to describe his luminous guidance, judicial criticism, valuable suggestions and tremendous help. He has been a perennial source of inspiration and persistent perseverance. His colossal contribution in the completion of this research work is unique. It will be my earnest endeavour to follow the golden path shown by him and further explore new horizons and open up new vistas.

I also express my deep regard and gratitude to Dr. A.K. Mishra, Head of the Chemistry Department, D.N. College, Meerut for his keen interest coupled with critical suggestions.

I consider it a matter of great privilege to have the opportunity to receive guidance and sustained encouragement from Dr. Ashok Kumar D.Sc. Professor, Department of Pharmacology L.L.R.M., Medical College, Meerut. I shall remain grateful to him for his active help. He instilled confidence in me and provided strength and moral support in my moments of despair.

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Harendra Kumar Principal D.N. College, Meerut for this inspiration, encouragement and providing necessary facilities for my research work.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to Dr. R.C. Agarwal, Dr. K.B. Kumar, Dr. S.M. Sharma, Dr. Sarita Rani, Dr. Deepali Jain, Dr. Yashowardhan, Dr. Deepak Kumar and Dr. Vishrudhra Chaudhary, Department of Chemistry, D.N. College, Meerut for their valuable advice and ever helping attitude.
Words are inadequate to express my regards to my respected parents (Shri Ranbir Singh and Mrs. Naresh Bala) and my beloved sister Km. Neetu for her great support, love and care. I owe a special debt to my wife Anita & my daughter Prachi for their untiring understanding and unflinching help, love & care.

I wish to thank my elder sister Anita and her husband Mr. Vikal Singh and their kids Ujjawal and Rajat for their support and love during the completion of this work.

Also I wish to thank my friends Trilok Chandra, C. S. Rajput, Rajkumar Yadav, Upendra, Sonia Verma, Nisha Singh, Neha Garg and Seema Anand.

I am also thankful to Business Center, Shop No. 21, Ratan Tower, Sector 5, Jagriti Vihar, Meerut for his laborious typing.

In the end, I would like to acknowledge the help and support given by all the technical and non-technical employees of Chemistry Department.

Last but not the least, I thank the almighty God for making me capable enough to carry out this research work.
