ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Many people have contributed either directly or indirectly in the preparation of this thesis. This research has been enriched by opinions and teachings of experts and co-operation and discussions with persons belonging to various age groups and holding various portfolios in the education field.

Grateful acknowledgements are accordable to my guide and teacher Dr. Pralhad Jogdand, Professor, Dept. of Sociology, Mumbai University, Mumbai for his unceasing stream of inspiration and advice.

I am also very grateful to vice-chancellor Dr. Deepak Tilak and Registrar Dr. Umesh Keskar, Tilak Maharashtra University, Pune and my faculty member for their co-operation and motivation.

Dr. Vimal Trivedi (Surat) Dr. Praveen Jadhav (Pune), Prof. Sanjay Khilare, (Baramati), Prof. Shankar Bhoir (Pune) Special thanks to the faculty and staff especially the library staff of Tilak Maharashtra University, Pune, Surat Study Center, Surat, Pune University, Pune for their friendly cooperation and assistance from time to time.

I am thankful to Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi (ICSSR) for given Contingency grant for this research work.
I am also thankful to my father-in-law Adv. S. G. Sudarshani and mother-in-law Mrs. Sudarshani, Adv. Nanasaheb Mane (Ex. M.I.A.), Mr. Gautamiputra Kamble, Principle Dr. Harish Bhalerao (Kolhapur), as well as my teachers who taught me in Dr. Ambedkar College of Arts and Commerce, Peth Vadgaon and Department of Sociology, Shivaji University, Kolhapur.

I am thankful to all the authors of various books and reports, I am also thankful to the Principals and the respondents of all the selected colleges, who have helped me at every stage. Without their information I could not complete this research work.

Words cannot express my feeling for my family members my mother Indumati, wife Sujata, and my children Utkarsha and Ujjwal who made my life and capable to reach up to this stage.

It is difficult to name all, but I offer my sincere thanks to all those who have directly and indirectly helped me in completing this thesis.

Mumbai

Jagannath Karade