Acknowledgement

In the years during which this thesis took shape, a good number of people encouraged, motivated and helped me out.

At the very outset, I would like to extend my hearty gratitude to Dr. Mayanglambam Mani Babu, Associate professor, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Imphal for his inspiration and perspiration in supervising and guiding me at every stage of research work. I really appreciate him for giving me such a freedom in the thinking process about the research and his attitude towards maintaining the originality of the researcher.

I wish to express my gratitude to Prof. W. Nabakumar, the then Head, Department of Anthropology and Dean, School of Human and Physical Sciences, Manipur University for his enduring support and insistence to complete my thesis.

I express my thankfulness to Prof. S. Jibonkumar Singh, Head, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Imphal for giving me departmental support in the course of my investigation.

I am indebted to Prof. MC Arun, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Imphal who taught me to think critically and for his thought provoking queries and suggestions about the present work.

I extend my gratitude to Prof Ch. Budhi Singh (retired), Prof. K. Saratchandra Singh, Guest faculty, Dr. Rustam Singh, Guest faculty and Dr. Y. Yaphaba Singh, Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Imphal for giving me valuable advice and suggestions during the research work.

For the irreplaceable co-operations and initiatives they extended to me in the course of my investigation, I thank all the members of the Pei, Women Society of Sawombung Kabui village and my other beloved respondents from different Kabui villages, without which the present work would not have been brought to light.

For reading through passage of texts and offering related supportive input and advice, I would like to thank Dr. Nongthombam Jiten (Bobby), Center for Myanmr Studies, Manipur University, Imphal and Dr. Sanjit Kamei, Post-Doctoral Fellow, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Imphal.
I am grateful to Gaidon Kamei and his wife Rajni Kameipui of Sawongbung Kabui Village for giving me hospitality and help extended to me during my field investigation.

I also appreciate and extend my sense of gratitude to my colleagues and senior colleagues, Dr. Pebam Krishnakumari, Post-Doctoral Fellow, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Imphal, Dr. Tonjam Joshila Devi, Post-Doctoral Fellow, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Imphal, Chemacha, Sumati Laishram, Bidya Ningthoujam, Priyokumar, Thuanchuiliu (Lulu) Dangmei, Jane T Pamei, W. Biseshwor, Diren Sanoujam, W. Subhachandra, Dr. Suren Leishangthem, Dr. Jibankumar Sorokhaibam, Bobo Okram, Belsya Kshetri, Soni Konsam for affirming my voice and giving me other forms of moral support over the years.

Finally, it is with the blessing of my late parents, Gaithaorei Gangmei and Numinlei Gangmeipui, and my brother, Gaiganglung Gangmei and sisters, Lata Gangmei and Pantisinglu Gangmei that I am able to carry out my dreams into reality.
