ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A prime thanks goes to the beneficent and compassionate Almighty for the wisdom and perseverance that He has bestowed upon me during this research work, and indeed, throughout my life.

During my Ph.D course, I have been accompanied and supported by many people. This thesis has been kept on track and goes to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, my friends and colleagues. At the end of my thesis, I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me.

At this moment of accomplishment, first of all I would like to thank my supervisor, Prof. Satya Paul, Department of Chemistry, University of Jammu, Jammu. This work would not have been possible without his guidance, support and encouragement. Under his guidance, I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot. His unflinching courage and conviction will always inspire me, and I consider it as an honour to work with him. For me, he is not only a teacher, but also a lifetime advisor.

I am also indebted to Prof. R. K. Bamezai (Head, Department of Chemistry) and Prof. S. K. Pandey (Former Head, Department of Chemistry), University of Jammu, Jammu for providing me the necessary infrastructure, help, support and a conducive environment required for carrying out my research work.

I gratefully acknowledge my sincere thanks to all the respected faculty members: Prof. Meena Sharma, Prof. Kamal K, Kapoor, Prof. H. N. Sheikh, Prof. D. S. Sambyal, Dr. Gauri D. Bajju, Dr. Monika Gupta and Dr. Ashwani Kumar for their motivation, support and guidance.

I am grateful to Dr. Amit Kumar Sharma and Mr. Brijmohan Khajuria for carrying out NMR studies. Thanks are also due to the non-teaching staff of Department of Chemistry, for adopting a candid and helpful attitude towards me.

I have been truly blessed to have a wonderful family. My parents have been a constant source of support throughout my life. The word grateful goes small when it comes to them . . . my mother Mrs. Lajja Sharma and my father Mr. Mohan Lal Sharma. I would like to thank my parents for allowing me to realize my own potential. All the support they have provided me over the years was the greatest gift anyone has ever given me. It was their love that raised me up again when I got weary.

Special thanks are also due to my supportive brother Dr. Sunny Sharma, and loving sister Ms. Renu Sharma, for their unconditional love, timely help and never ending support from the core of the heart. Without their encouragement and assistance, compilation of my thesis would rather be difficult for me.

I express my appreciation for valuable co-operation and help rendered to me by my research labmates; Dr. Seema Sahi, Dr. Ravinder pal Kour Sodhi, Dr. Madhvi Bhardwaj, Dr. Manmeet Kour, Ms. Babita Jamwal, Mr. Hitesh Mahajan, Ms. Shally Sharma, Mr. Chandan Sharma, Ms. Manpreet Kour, Ms. Anu Chowdary, Ms. Nitika, and Ms. Sukanya. Without their immense support and help, I would not have been able to accomplish this task.

All of this would never have been possible without the love and support of my sweet friends Dr. Annah, Dr. Neha, Heena, Mehak, Shilpi, Dr. Ruby, Manish, Samriti, as they occupies a special corner in my heart and will always be remembered for their kgeness, love, care and encouragement.

I also extend my warm thanks to Dr. Gurpreet Kour, Ms. Jaspreet Kour, Dr. Rajni Khajuria, Dr. Manjula Gupta, Ms. Mandeep Kour, Mr. Rajinder, Ms. Sheena Mahajan and Dr. Dilpreet Kour, for their care and constant moral encouragement for the completion of my research work.

Finally, I would like to thank everyone who was important to the successful realization of this thesis, as well as expressing my apology that I could not mention personally one by one. To all of them I say “Thanks” from the core of my heart.

Harsha Sharma
