ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The nature of research is such that it is never possible without the persuasive guidance, blessings of elders and mercy of God. It would be my privilege to pay my sincere and profound thanks to my reverend teacher and erudite supervisor Dr. R.K. Soni, Associate Professor and Eminent Scientist, Department of Chemistry, CCS University Meerut under whose scholarly guidance and his creatively generating knowledge umbrella, I could carry out the present research work. I obligingly, admit that without his vast knowledge, masterly approach, creative criticism and above all encouragement throughout my research years, it would have never been possible for me to complete this arduous task.

I credit my fortunes, the showers of blessings, illuminating guidance and benevolence of my dearest and honorable uncle Prof. N.K. Taneja, a great Economist, a Professor of Economics and Vice-chancellor of C.C.S. University, Meerut to ignite within me the desire and passion for research. I shall ever cherish this sense of indebtedness throughout my life. With profound privilege, I express my deep gratitude to Prof. Ashok Gupta, Dean, Science for his persuasion and encouragement during the research work. I feel extremely grateful to my co-guide Dr. Manisha Arora, Associate Professor, Deptt. of Biochemistry, Muzaffarnagar Medical College, who was kind enough at every step of conceptualizing, designing and carrying out this research. I fall short of words in expressing my gratitude towards her. I extend my gratefulness to Mr. Bhupender Singh Rana, Deptt. of Statistics, CCSU, Meerut for providing his precious help in analyzing and interpreting the results. A deep sense of gratitude goes unexpressed for his calm, ever cheerful, deep and wide scholarly wisdom and support. I feel extremely indebted to my uncle Dr. Tanuraj Sirohi, a professor in the Deptt. Of Medicine, Subharti University, Meerut, a renowned and leading physician of Meerut who consistently inspired me by his persistent guidance, time to time clarification of issues related to Tuberculosis and powerful encouragement. I would also like to extend my gratification to Dr. Virottam Tomar who whenever I felt the need of discussing about my research work, untiringly derived pleasure in clearing my doubts away.
I am very thankful to my uncle Dr. I.R.S. Sindhu, esteemed Professor and Dean, Faculty of Education, CCSU, Meerut for persuading me to complete this research work. His great appreciation and effective motivation guided my efforts to enable me to complete my work. I am also thankful to Dr. J.S. Bhardwaj, Lecturer, Department of Education, C.C.S. University Meerut, for his benediction and encouragement. I find it ineffable to express the motivation instilled in me by my Naniji and Nanaji’s (Mrs. and Mr. Chaudhary Charan Singh), their inner evocation and illuminizing rays of their prays to god made me insightful and motivated to complete my research work.

I am equally thankful to my parents and younger brother Er.Sumit tomar for their support and kind concern in my academic endeavors.

Again I feel overwhelmed in not being able to express the patience, moral support, valuable insights for personalizing my research work as my elder brothers, Dr. Rajeev Tomar and Dr. Narendra Tomar. I will not be able to forget their contribution in sharing their valuable insights, unfailing support in completing the research work.

I express my thanks to my respected Col. H.S. Teotia (Mausa Ji) and Smt. Rajeshwari (Mausi Ji), Dr. Ravindra Rana (Mama Ji), Mr. Chandra Pal (Mama Ji), Mr. Vishvendra Kumar (Mama Ji) and all my friends especially ,CFI. Mr. Ajit, Miss. Divya and Mrs. Amita for their constant inspiration and unstinted support.

I thank the technicians of the Deptt. of Tuberculosis, P.L. Sharma Hospital, Meerut and Lala Lajpat Rai Medical College, Meerut for helping me in collecting the blood samples for my research work. I owe the academic support rendered by research scholars and lab assistants of the Deptt. of Chemistry and Biochemistry.

Last but not least my sincere, ardent and ever remembering thanks to Mr. Manoj Pant, Mr. Vivek Tyagi and Mr. Ravindra Kumar who put their untiring efforts and took constant pain in typing the thesis.

As last, I thank those who in one way or the other rendered their kind support and help whenever I needed.
