ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My heartfelt gratitude goes to my Research Advisor Dr. Ashutosh Das, for his continuous advice, support and for having the belief in the first place that I can handle the trans-disciplinary areas of Environmental Impact Assessment & Sustainability Assessment. I also thank my Doctoral committee members Dr. T. R. Sivaramakrishnan, Dean-Research, Dr. S.N. Srivastava, SASTRA University, Dr. K. Palanichamy, NIT Trichy and Dr. KP Sudheer, IIT Madras for their valuable comments and suggestion which helped to shape my research work.

I sincerely thank our Vice-chancellor Prof. R. Sethuraman for his constant encouragement and for providing wonderful facilities for carrying out this research work. My thanks are also due to our Registrar Prof. N. Anantharaman for his continuous encouragement in all matters concerning research activities. I especially thank our Dean - School of Civil Engineering Prof. S. Ananthapadmanaban for his valuable and practical suggestions on many matters concerning this research work.

Since this thesis is primarily based on participatory cognitive mapping of local residents, the co-operation and enthusiasm of the residents of the two villages of Kalarampatti and Srinivasapuram had a major role in enabling the completion of this research. In particular, I would like to thank Mr. Alagappan and the panchayat members of Kalarampatti Village; Mr. Prasad of Ariyalur and Mr. Tamilarasan of Srinivasapuram Village for their cheerful help in providing necessary inputs and their time whenever I approached them.

I am deeply grateful to the reviewers of the papers which have been published out of this research work, their meticulous review, comments and suggestions went a long way in firming up the conceptual and methodological aspects of this research. Thanks are also due to the faculty of School of Civil Engineering for their motivation and support, in particular to Dr. T.R. Neelakantan for his research inputs and Dr. Saranathan for his help in accessing the required maps for the study area. And finally I thank my family for their love, patience, tolerance and sacrifice during all these years of my research.
PhD Publications

Parts of this thesis have been published in the following:
International Peer-Reviewed Journals

International Journals : Published

International Journals: Under review