ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is the end of my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. I have not travelled in a vacuum in this journey. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, my friends, colleagues and various institutions. I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me. It is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study.

Foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. C.K.K. Nair, Dean of Research, Pushpagiri Institute of Medical science and Research Centre, Thiruvalla, for his supervision, advice, and guidance from the very early stage of this research as well as giving me extraordinary experiences throughout the work. His perpetual energy and enthusiasm in research has motivated me. His capacity to combine critique with an immediate empathy and commitment towards students and others engaged in research will always inspire me. In addition, he was always accessible and willing to help me with my research and his constructive guidance during the course of research helped me to present this thesis today. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my Ph.D study.

I also acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Ramadasan Kuttan, Research director, Amala Cancer Research Centre, Amala Nagar, Thrissur, for his constant encouragement and invaluable guidance.

My sincere thanks to Padmabhooshan Rev. Fr. Gabriel CMI, founder director, Rev. Fr. George Pius CMI, Rev.Fr.Paul Achandy, CMI, Rev.Fr.Thomas Chakramakal, CMI and Rev.Fr. Walter Thelapilly, Director, Amala Cancer Hospital and research centre, for permitting me to carry out this work here.

I wish my sincere thanks to Dr. Jose Padikkala, Dr. K.K. Janardhanan, Dr. Girija Kuttan and Dr. TD Babu, Professors, Amala Cancer Research Centre, for their support, help and suggestions.

I owe my most sincere gratitude to Dr.D.Karunagaran, Professor Dept.of Biotechnology, Indian Institute of Technology – Madras, who gave me the opportunity to work with him in the Department of Biotechnology IIT Madras, and gave me untiring help during my difficult moments.

I also thank Dr. Ram lingam and Dr. Sakthivel Ramasamy, post doctoral fellows, Dept.of Biotechnology, IIT Madras for their help to carry out part of my work at the Department of Biotechnology, IIT Madras.

My warm thanks are due to Dr. Sudheeran, Mr. Muthuvel, Mr. Kathiresan and other members of Dept. of Radiotherapy for their help in radiation studies.
I thank my friends and colleagues at Amala Cancer Research Centre: Jisha Joy, Daney Mathew, Dhanya K.C, Lakshmi R, Gopakumar G. Nair, Aditya Menon, Saratchandran A. Divakaran, Cleetus C.C, Femi Martin, Dr. Preethi K.C and C.G. Preetha, for the stimulating discussions, for the sleepless nights we were working together before deadlines, and for all the fun we have had in the last four years.

I am thankful to Ms. Thankamani and Mrs. Sumathi, animal house assistants for their help in the maintenance and breeding of animals.

I am indebted to the Kerala State Council for Science, Technology and Environment (KSCSTE) for granting me a research fellowship to pursue my research.

I am also thankful to my husband Sandeep Saratchandran who has been a great friend and supported me all through these years. We missed so many days together and thanks for the support during those times. Thanks you so much for with me to complete my research.

Special thanks to my little girl Tanmayee who inspired me a lot to complete my thesis and you are my world now.

I would also like to thank my parents-in-law D. Saratchandran and Rita Saratchandran. Thank you very much for the long lasting care, the support extended during my research.

I would like to thank my loving brother Sreekanthur, my sister in law Julie Archer and Arjun Sreekanth for sincere encouragement and inspiration throughout my research across the miles.

Last but not least, thanks to God Almighty, for my life through all tests in the past five years. You have made my life more bountiful. May your name be exalted, honoured, and glorified.

Lastly, and most importantly, I wish to thank my parents, M.E Sasidharan and Syamala Sasidharan. They raised me, supported me, taught me, and loved me. To them I dedicate this thesis.
