ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is the matter of great pleasure for me to avail the moment of expressing gratitude to the persons found immense helpful during this arduous work. Firstly, I praise to be that God Almighty for showering his grace upon me in all the time and all the ways. It is his grace alone that helped me tide over many hurdles in this tough endeavour.

It seemed to be a proved privilege to express my deepest and profound sense of gratitude to my magnanimous guide Dr. P.P. Dubey, Associate Professor, Department of Agricultural Economics and Statistics, Kulbhaskar Ashram Post Graduate College, Allahabad for his kind encouragement, valuable suggestions, constructive criticism, instil encouragement, inspiring guidance and everlasting affection during every step of this research work. He always encouraged and helped me during the academic career in various ways and brought me to this level of presentation. His assistance would remain a debt on me which I can never repay.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not mention the kind help and technical guidance rendered by Dr. P.K. Kathiha, Senior Scientist, Central Inland Capture Fisheries Research Institute, Barrackpore, Kolkata, in collection of the relevant literatures and information.

I am thankful to Dr. Rakesh Singh, Professor and Head; Dr. H.P. Singh, Professor; Dr. Chandra Sen, Professor; and Dr. O.P. Singh, Assistant Professor, at the Department of Agricultural Economics, Institute of Agricultural Sciences, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, for their kind help in the statistical analysis of data and completion of research work in many ways.

I am highly grateful to Dr. P.R. Mishra (I.A.S.) Director, Directorate of Fisheries, U.P., Lucknow for providing the state level information.
Thanks are also due to Chief Executive Officer, FFDA, Allahabad and District statistical Officer, Allahabad for their kind help in collection of the information of Allahabad district.

I am thankful to all the supervisors of departmental fish farms of the four blocks under study namely Jasara, Karchhana, Koraon and Shankargarh for their kind and untiring support throughout the study period. Also, I am obliged and express my deep sense of gratitude to all the respondents who co-operated in all the ways without any hesitation in memorizing and providing data for this research work.

I am thankful from the bottom of my heart to my father Dr. R.C. Singh, Ex. Deputy Director, Agriculture (Govt. of West Bengal) for moral and financial support, motivations and blessings, patience and untiring inspirations rendered to me.

My heartiest special thanks are also due to my wife Mrs. Manisha Singh and daughters Anuska Singh and Rasi Singh who have taken a lot of pains and missed me during the whole period of investigation. They always inspired me at every stage. Without their support I could not be able to do any thing during the research.

Last but not least, I am thankful to all the friends, fellows, family and all those who have always encouraged and helped me directly or indirectly in completion of this research work and extended their love and care for me during my research work.
