ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my sincere gratitude and obligation to Rev. Fr. O.J Alex CMI, my research supervisor, for his continuous guidance and support for the completion of this study.

I am very much indebted to Dr. Antony Kariyil CMI, the Director, Dr. Joseph I Injodey, the Principal and Dr. Mary Joseph, the Dean and Administrator, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, for their support and encouragement in accomplishing this task.

Thanks are due to Dr. T.O Poulose, Head, Dept. of Social Work, and all my colleagues of Rajagiri College of Social Sciences for their timely help during the various phases of the study.

I am grateful to the Director, Department of Dairy Development, Govt. of Kerala and Deputy Directors of Dairy Development of the Districts of Trivandrum, Kottayam and Palakkad for granting me permission for the collection of data from the dairy co-operatives. The officials of MILMA and Dairy Extension Officers of the Development Blocks are gratefully remembered for their sincere cooperation.

I am very much indebted to the respondents of the study, the 360 dairy farmers and secretaries of the dairy co-operative societies for their whole hearted cooperation and support without which this study would not have been possible.

I specially thank Mr. M.Somasekharan Pillai, Associate Professor in Statistics, University College, Trivandrum for his valuable contribution in the analysis of data. Fr. Jobichan requires special mention for his timely help in editing the report and a word of appreciation to Matha Press for typesetting the manuscript. My sincere appreciation and thanks to all those who have contributed in one way or other to the successful completion of this endeavour.

Finally I thank the Lord almighty for the immense blessings he has bestowed on me in this relentless search for knowledge and its outcome.

Joseph M.K
