ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I bow before God almighty for the blessings I received.

It gives me immense pleasure to remember with gratitude all those who stood by me, supporting and encouraging me in each and every moment of this work. It is their love and care that helped me to complete this difficult task successfully.

I am greatly indebted to my guide Dr. Mahajan P. Mani, Professor, School of Gandhian Thought and Development Studies, who believed in me and helped me to overcome all the hurdles that came up in the process of completing this task. His constant support and utmost consideration was felt at the most needed moments of this work. His persona as one of the most accomplished academician in the field of social work, and his relentless pursuit for quality and his uncompromising adherence to the time schedule, all these gave impetus for this work. Thank you very much sir for being there with me whenever I needed.

I am grateful to Dr. R. Parthasarathy, Professor, Department of Psychiatric Social Work, NIMHANS for his patient listening and valuable guidance from the very beginning of this study.

I owe my gratitude to Dr. K. Sekar, Professor, Department of Psychiatric Social Work, NIMHANS for the support and guidance offered to me in the initial stages of this work.

I would like to thank Dr. Joy Jacob, Professor and Head, Department of Statistics, St. Thomas College, Pala for helping me with the analysis. His serene style of functioning and his readiness to give help at any time I approached him were so much of a solace while interpreting the quantitative data.

I am grateful to Dr. Razeena Padman, Professor and Head, School of Behavioural Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University for her valuable suggestions.
I gratefully acknowledge Dr. Bino Thomas, Asst. Professor, Christ College, Bangalore, Dr. Kavitha Aravind, Junior Consultant, Department of Psychiatric Social work, NIMHANS, Bangalore, Dr. Seema P Uthaman, Consultant Psychiatric Social Worker, Amala Medical College, Thrissur and Dr. Aravind Raj, Junior Consultant, NIMHANS, Bangalore who were such wonderful resource persons and also for acting as buffers for my stresses.

I am grateful to Dr. M.K.C. Nair, Director, Child Guidance Centre, Thiruvananthapuram for the support he offered.

I am deeply indebted to Mrs. Teresa Mathew, Myladyili, Retired Senior Lecturer, Department of English, Sophia Girls College, Ajmer and my aunty who took the painstaking effort to go through this work in the process of editing it. I also thank her for her blessings and prayers.

A Special note of thanks to Mrs. Asha, Child Development project officer for giving me the access and freedom to all the resources for the data collection. Thanks Asha for your generosity, openness and your willingness to help me all the time I approached you.

I am grateful to the Pambady Block Panchayath Authorities, for giving me consent to conduct the study in the ICDS project Pambady.

I thank all the Project officers and Supervisor who cooperated with me in this study. I am extremely grateful to all the Anganwadi workers who cooperated with me especially those who participated in this study as master trainers. Thanks to all of you for having confidence in me and for extending your help and support in all possible ways. I also thank each one of you for encouraging me through your positive feedbacks and sharing your valuable time and experience.

I would like to thank all the faculty members of NIPCCD and Middle level training centre for the ICDS functionaries of Rajagiri college of Social sciences for their timely assistance and valuable suggestions.
A special note of thanks to dear Esly Aunty (Thottiyil) and Marykkutty Aunty (Moongamakkal) for their valuable help in the completion of this work.

I thank all the parents who gave consent to their daughters to participate in this study, and the participant girls who made the programme so very lively. Thank you very much for the feedback you gave me, which helped me very much to fine tune the project.

I am deeply indebted to my parents for making me what I am. Their constant prayers and loving support were my strongest pillars at the most troublesome periods. My thanks are due to my loving sister and her family for all that she is for me.

A special note of thanks to my mother-in-law, who passed away last year. Thank you Ammaci, for your intercession and prayers. I am grateful to Achachen (my father-in-law), my brother in laws and to my sister in laws for encouraging me. I give all my loving gratitude to my little boy Georgy and his loving father Boby for being part of this work and my life.
