ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my gratitude to Dr. B.K. Joshi, Professor of Political Science and Director, Giri Institute of Development Studies, Lucknow, under whose supervision I have carried out · research. I am grateful to him for encouragement as well as for the patience and tolerance with which he has guided this work.

I am deeply indebted to the Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi for granting me a Teacher Fellowship for research, which was tenable at the Giri Institute of Development Studies, Lucknow.

To Isabella Thoburn College, Lucknow I am grateful for permitting me study leave to avail of the research fellowship.

In course of the study of this research, I came in touch with many voluntary workers and activists who shared of their time, and their insights and also documents. Too numerous to be mentioned individually, I would like appreciate their help and cooperation.

I am very grateful to the Library Staff of the Giri Institute of Development Studies for their prompt and courteous help at all times.

At several points of time I have used the Library at the Indian Institute of Public Administration, Delhi, the Documentation Centre at Lokayan in Delhi and the Library at Indian Social Institute at Delhi. I thank them for their help.

I am extremely grateful for the painstaking assistance of Mr. V.K.A. Achary and Mr. Manoharan, K. for final typing of the thesis.

To Ashish Madhwal, who helped in the arduous task of proof reading – a warm thank you.

On a personal level I would like to acknowledge with gratitude the unquestioning support I have received from my family at all times. Gita Madhwal, Vinod Juyal and Amita Juyal have cherished and sustained.
To my local support network of friends, Sushma Raturi, Ruth Chakravarty and Purnima Revis — grateful thanks for helping in numerous ways.

And finally I would like recall the encouragement and inspiration of some people — no more with me — and yet constantly in the images of the mind.
