ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is that providential design and grace that empowered me to venture on research work of this nature at this phase of my academic life.

If not with the constant encouragement and fruitful support of my beloved guide Dr. T. M. Joseph, this endeavour would not have been a reality. I am very much indebted to him for his scholarly intervention, creative suggestions, critical evaluation and inspiring guidance. Despite being busy with the administrative and academic responsibilities as the Principal of Newman College, Thodupuzha, he guided and supervised this work very earnestly. I am fortunate to experience his empathy and erudition. I sincerely express my gratitude for the inestimable help and support from Dr. M S John, Director, Dr. Mahajan P Mani and Dr. M Maharajan, the former Directors, and their colleagues of the School of Gandhian Thought and Development Studies, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam.

With pleasant emotions of gratitude I acknowledge the generosity of the librarians of the Mahatma Gandhi University, Centre for Development Studies, Thiruvananthapuram, British Council Library, Thiruvananthapuram, St. Dominic’s College, Kanjirapally for providing access to the library facilities. It took me a long way in the completion of the research work.

I am glad to acknowledge the priceless support and encouragement given by the management, principals and colleagues of St. Dominic’s College, Kanjirapally for undertaking the research work. The inspiration and assistance rendered by the members of the Department of Political Science of the College is to be particularly acknowledged.

I deem it opportune to express my sincere gratitude to my colleagues and friends especially, Dr. Baby Thomas, Director, School of Distance Education, Mahatma Gandhi University, Dr. K K Jose and Dr. Alex Thannippara, Department of Statistics, St. Thomas College, Pala.
Let me mark my great appreciation and gratitude for the continuous motivation and co-operation extended by Sri. Devasia Joseph and Sri. Biju Joseph K. Let me also record my heart full thanks to Maithri, the support organization for the Jalanidhi Project at Palakkad. The Director Sri. Joji M Thakadi, Sri. Sibi K. Joseph, Assistant Director and their co-workers rendered valuable assistance in successfully carrying out my field survey in Palakkad District. I thankfully remember the assistance extended by Sri. Vinodkumar, Executive Director, Maithri. It is with immense pleasure that I register my gratitude to Sri. A Madhavan, the former President of the Erimayur Grama Panchayat and the respective members of the Grama Panchayat for providing me support for interacting with the various Beneficiary Groups and granting me access to the relevant records of the Panchayat. I am bound to place on record the extraordinary co-operation and support extended by Sri. Ramdas K P of Panayampara, Smt. Vijaya M S of Chullimada, and Smt. Ambika K of Kunnil Beneficiary Groups.

I express my special thanks to Minitek Computers for their timely service.

I fondly reckon the prayerful support from Lucy, my wife, Vinu, Jinu and Renjith, my children.

Priyadarshini Hills

October 2012

P.J. VARKEY

Research Scholar