ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

‘Your Care has made me great,
and Your Power has kept me safe’. (Psalm 18:35)

Praise and Glory to God Almighty, who is the source of strength and inspiration in every walk of my life and the basis of my knowledge, wisdom and MARY, my Mother who guided me throughout this period for the successful completion of my research work.

With great respect, sincere gratitude and love, I express my thankful obligation to my most respectful teacher and guide, Dr. Antony K. Chirappanath, Professor, Former Director, School of Gandhian Thought and Development Studies, M.G. University, Kottayam for his creative and constructive suggestions, depth of knowledge, fruitful discussion, ever willing help, enthusiasm, insight and encouraging support in the several stages of my study. Dear teacher, I thank you for the patience and tolerance with which you guided me throughout the study, hearing with my impulses and inadequacies.

My thanks are also due to Dr. M. S. John, Director School of Gandhian Thought and Development Studies, M.G University, Kottayam for his constant encouragement and sincere guidance.

My immense gratitude is to all the faculty members of the School of Gandhian Thought and Development Studies especially Dr. Nirmala Devi, Dr. Maharajan, Dr. Mahajan. P. Mani, Dr. M. P. Mathai, Dr. Roy C. Mathew, Prof. A. V. Joseph, Dr. Sandhya, Dr. C.R. Harilakshmeendra Kumar, M.G. University, Kottayam for their valuable support and encouragement.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Jose K. Chirappanath, Gerontologist, Netherland, for his valuable guidance and suggestions without which this work would not have attained the excellence due to it.

I owe deep gratitude and sincere thanks to Dr. C. Sunanda Professor of the Department of Bio-Statistics, for aiding me with her statistical expertise.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Jacob Roy, Neurologist, Kunnamkulam, Dr. Roshan, Social Gerontology Consultant, Bangalore and Dr. Joe Thomas Head of the Community Medicine, Ernakulum for his keen interest, luminous guidance, valuable suggestions and able assistance without which this research work would not have fructified.

I am also indebted to the CMC sisters, Mannanam, Assisi Bhavan, Kottayam and Adoration sisters, Kalamassery without whose prayerful support for this study would not have come to the light of the day.

I extend my sincere gratitude to Mareena Home, St. Joseph, Nursing School, DePaul Ashram, Choondal, for their prayerful spiritual support.

My heartfelt thanks to Mr. T. P. Antony for his untiring patience and timely help in preparing the manuscript.

My sincere thanks are due to the Senior Citizens, Dementia patients and their Care-givers, who participated in my research, without which the study would not have been a success.

I express my gratitude to Mr. Mathew P. V., Vikas, Computer Park, Kottayam and Mr. Unni, Minitek Computers, Athirampuzha for their technical assistance.

My hearty thanks to my loving Provincial Superior Rev. Mother Omer C.M.C. and all the sisters of my congregation for their encouragement and blessings.

I cannot but express my sincere sentiments of gratitude to my beloved Appachan (Rtd. Head Master), Amma, brothers and sisters for their silent, yet effective prayerful support and whole-hearted cooperation throughout the course of my studies.

Finally, let me convey my sincere thanks to each and everyone who has assisted me with encouragement to accomplish this task.

The human mind plans the way, but the Lord directs the steps. (Proverb, 19/6). Thanks and praise to my beloved Jesus Christ, my pillar of strength, whose caring hands have guided me throughout my research. I humbly submit myself and this research work wholeheartedly into the hands of ALMIGHTY GOD, MY HEAVENLY FATHER.

KOTTAYAM

31-05-2012

MARY FRANCIS NEELANKAVIL