Pursuing and completion of doctoral research thesis was a memorable and enjoyable experience for me. It’s just like climbing a high peak of success, step by step, accompanied with hardships, frustration, encouragement and trust. When I found myself at the top enjoying the beautiful scenery, I realized that it was, in fact, collaborative effort that got me there. In addition to my work, this thesis is an outcome of the affection and support of many good people around me who were always there to extend their whole hearted support. I wish to express my sincere appreciation to those who have contributed to this thesis and supported me in one way or the other during this amazing journey.

First and foremost I want to express heartfelt regards and indebtedness to my Ph.D supervisor Dr. Girdhar K. Pandey who showed his faith in me and allowed me to work in his research lab. He conceptualized my thesis work with all his wisdom and apt knowledge and allowed me to work freely and effectively with his proper guidance and support at each and every step. He routinely took interest in my progress and pushed me in right direction all the time to achieve the ultimate goal. I’ve learned a lot from him, without his help I could not have finished my Ph.D. dissertation successfully.

I place on record my sincere thanks and appreciation for Prof. Akhilesh K. Tyagi and Dr. Sanjay Kapoor for providing the rice microarray expression data which was used for rice genes transcript profiling in my thesis. They also help to make me understand several basic facts about the analysis part of it. Their valuable support and suggestion were very useful and helped me to enhance the quality of my work. I am also thankful to Prof. Anil Grover for allowing me to freely use his green house facility to raise rice transgenic plants for functional analysis part of my thesis. I am also grateful to Prof. I. Dasgupta, Prof. Madan Mohan, Prof. J.P. Khurana, Prof. P. Khurana, Dr. A. K. Sharma, Dr. S. Raghuvanshi and Dr. S.K. Agarwal for their constant support during my thesis work.

I am thankful from bottom of my heart to Akhilesh Yadav and Poonam Kanwar, with whom I started this beautiful journey of my research career and shared several moments of joy and sorrow which created memories for lifetime. They were always
