CONTENTS

Chapter - I
INTRODUCTION

Need of manpower planning in India (1), Importance of manpower planning in economic development (2), Direction of manpower development from agriculture to industry (5), Dynamic approach to educational planning (11), Identification of strategic areas (13), Technical personnel planning (14), Conclusion (15).

Chapter - II
Necessities and Importance of Employment Exchanges in Manpower planning

Definition of Employment Exchanges (19), Necessity & importance of Employment Exchanges (23), Provide information of labour market for full utilisation of manpower for matching adjustment between the demand & supply of labour (26), Help in mobility of labour (30), Elimination of bribery and corruption in system of recruitment (33), Help in implementation of various schemes of the Government (34), Provide training facilities & vocational guidance(35), Help in maximising national dividend advantages to the employer (42), General functions of Employment Exchanges(a) Placement functions (43), (b) General Characteristic of other functions (45), (c) The Employment information functions (47), (d) The occupational analysis functions (51), The development & maintenance of the national occupation analysis (53), The development of a knowledge of basic job structure (55), conclusion (57).

Chapter - III

Employment Exchanges Abroad

United states of America (59), United Kingdom (62), Germany (64), Sweden (68), France (74), Iran (78), Italy (78), Israel (78), Neitherland (79), Working condition in Soviet enterprises (79), The employ service in New-Zealand (81), N.E.S. in Canada (86), Common wealth service (88), Conclusion (90).

Chapter - IV

Organisation of Employment Exchanges in U.P.

Chapter V

The Role of Employment Exchange in relation to the problem of Unemployment

Unemployment defined in several sector of unemployment like (122), (1) First classification (a) Agricultural Unemployment (125), (b) Vocational Unemployment (126), (c) Industrial Unemployment (127), (2) Second classification (d) Complete Unemployment (127). (e) Intermittent Unemployment (128), (f) Under-Employment (133), Extent of Unemployment in India (136), The Present stage of Unemployment (139), Unemployment during I to VII Five-Year-Plans (141), Unemployment in the Rural and Urban sectors (143), Causes of Unemployment (a) Growth of Population (147), (b) Defects in the Government Policy (150), (c) Rationalisation of industries (151), (d) Unemployment caused by displaced person (153), Gold control policy of the Government of India (154), Concentration of Managerial Power in the hands managing agents (155), Nationalisation (155) Lack of training & skill (156), Effects of unemployment (A) Social Effects (157), (i) Depression Effects (157) (2) effect Upon Moral of the Works (158), (3) Domestic Disturbances (159), (4) Crime & Suicides (159), (5) Psychological conditions (159), (6) Maladjustment of Workers in the society (160), (7) Intoxicating Habits (160), (8) Painful Evils of the Society (160), (B) Economic Effects (161), (c) Political Effects (164), Remedies & cures (165), (i) Short term Remedies (a) Deficit Financing (165), (b) Development of cottage Industries (166), (c) Suitable Export & Import Policy (167), (d) Establishment of National Productive Centre (170), (e) Government store purchase policy (171), (f) Reduction in cost of living of working class (171), (g) Emigration (172), (h) Population control (172), (ii) Long term Remedies (a) Rural Economy to be stepped up (174), (b) Decentralisation of Industries (175), (c) Unemployment Insurance (176), Efficient Service of Employment Exchange (177), Conclusion (179).

Chapter VI

Employment & Training Programmes in U.P. PAGE (180-228)

Industrial Development & Manpower (180), Need today for vocational training (182), Some Definitions (184), Experience of U.K. (187), Japan Vocational Training (187), Vocational training A Crying need of country (191), A Gateway to Employment (193), Training service for various needs (194), training Schemes (196), Scope & duration qualification for admission (203), Method of selection (205), Aptitude test (207), National trade certificate (207), The Apprenticeship scheme (207), Short term Apprenticeship (210), Full term Apprenticeship (211), Responsibilities of the Employment Officer (213), Guidance for trainees of I.T.I.'s stipended admissible (216), Registration (226), Conclusion (228).

Chapter - VII

Working of Employment Exchanges in (U.P.) PAGE(229-257)

General Procedure (229), Registration of workers (230), Classification of applicants (232), Notification of Vacancies (233), Submission and placing of applicants (235), Card index system (238), Labour clearing (239), Employment Exchanges & Women (240), Physically handicapped (243), Appointment branch (249), Pool & Decasualisation scheme (250), Vocational Guidance (254), Employment Market Information section of the Employment Exchange (256), Conclusion (256).

Chapter - VIII

Drawbacks & Difficulties in the Working of Employment Exchanges in U.P. PAGE (258-270)

Difficulties & Defects (A) Slow Economic development (258), (B) Maladjustment in the demand and supply of labour force (259), Favouration & Currruption in recruitment (261), Employment Officers do not contact with job-seekers (263), Personaly job seekers have to waste their previous time for their Registration with the Employment Exchanges (264), Lack of Public Co-operation (264), Inadequate Publicity (264), Wrong information by the job seekers (265), Inadequate and untrained staff (266). The inadequate number of Employment Exchanges (267), Political Interference (268), Wrong Placements & Corruption etc. (269), Conclusion (270).

Chapter - IX

An Approach for Reorientation & Reorganisation of Employment Exchange

Suggestions (A) Balanced Economic development (273), (B) Comprehensive training facilities (276), Honest staff and due Regard to the complaints of job seekers (277), Expansion of Employment service (278), Organisation of specific Employment Exchanges (279), Organisation of Rural Employment Service (283), Wide Publicity (285), Co-operation from Job seekers and employers (286), Issue of Discharge Certificate (287), Compulsory registration of the Unemployeds (288), Employment Exchange should play a vital Role in field of Social security also (289), Special section for reserve Categories (289), Conclusion (290).

SUMMARY AND SUGGESTIONS

BIBLIOGRAPHY