At the very outset, I am ever indebted to God Almighty for giving me the strength and presence of mind in every phase of my study. Without His abundant blessings this work would not have been finished.

We all know research is a cooperative work that embodies a blending of combined efforts. I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude towards all those who have helped me in completing the research work.

First and foremost I heartily express my sincere thanks to Prof. (Dr) A. Sudharma, Dean, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for her credible inspiration and unfailing guidance and the constructive help to consistently holding me accountable for realistic problem sets. I owe a debt of gratitude to her contagious enthusiasm and personal attention for meticulously going through the drafts repeatedly and asking the most insightful questions at the right time with a vision to making the work a systematic one. This work would not have been finished without the deep insight and inspiring encouragement provided by my creative mentor.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. T.V. Thulaseedharan, Director, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for his valuable help extended to me during the period of study.

I am grateful to Dr. P. J. Jacob, Former Director, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for his support and encouragement.

I wish to express my gratitude to all the faculty members and non teaching staff in the School of Pedagogical Sciences, especially Mr. Shiju Das, Librarian for the immense help and inspiring encouragement provided during the progress of the present study.

Special thanks are due to all the heads, teachers and students of the selected schools for their kind cooperation.

I feel happy in recording the words of gratitude towards (late) Dr. Vedamony Manual, Former Prof and Head, Department of Education.
Thiruvananthapuram and all other experts who helped me on different stages of the study.

I am grateful to the staff of the Mahatma Gandhi University Library especially to Mr. Unnikrishnan for his timely support and encouragement.

I express my sincere thanks to the Management of N.S.S Training College, Pandalam for permitting me to avail leave on deputation under the F.I.P. A special word of thanks to the non teaching staff especially the librarians Mr. P.R. Sudhakaran Nair, Miss. Sreeletha for their valuable assistance.

I express my heartfelt thanks to my fellow researchers for their constant encouragement and untiring enthusiasm.

My deepest gratitude to Dr. Asha O.S, Associate Professor, S.N.M. Training College, Muthakunnam for her vote of support on many occasions, for sharing the ups and downs and for her many hours spend for me. I also express my gratitude to Dr. Sunila Thomas, Associate Professor, Titus 11th Teachers Training College, Thiruvalla for her valuable assistance. I wish to acknowledge Mr. Baiju, K.V, Assistant Professor, Govt. Womens College, Thiruvananthapuram for his support and encouragement.

I can never forget the help rendered to me by my sisters and their families, especially my younger sister, Sreevidya Nair, N, and the unlimited prayers by my Mother, friends, relatives and all other well wishers.

I wish to acknowledge Mr. Binoop Kumar, Indu Photos, Kalamassery for his technical support for the timely completion of the work.

Last but not least, endless thanks and gratitude to the person who was really behind this success, my husband, Mr. Rajesh Kumar. He is the wind beneath my wings, without his valuable ideas and emotional help I wouldn’t have been finished this work successfully. A special word of thanks to our kids, Suryathejus and Akshayathejus for their understanding when I was not always available to them.

To all those whom I may have forgotten to mention THANKS.
