ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My academic journey had begun from being a first generation learner to being a Ph. D scholar in English. This journey wouldn't have been possible without constant support, affectionate encouragement and loving guidance of my supervisor Prof K. Venkat Reddy. I would like to express my deepest sincere gratitude to him for giving me a unique opportunity to work with him. His continuous guidance, invaluable suggestions, generous help and deep insights on research are greatly acknowledged. His keen interest on the topic and enthusiastic support on his efforts were a source of inspiration to carry out the study. I consider myself fortunate to work under his supervision.

My deepest gratitude is to my advisors Prof. Anand Mahanand and Prof. Chanchala K. Naik for their valuable suggestions to make my thesis better.

I would like to thank professors of the department Prof Paul Gunashekar, Prof. S. Mohanraj, Prof Kishore Kumar, Prof S. Upendran, Prof Veda Sharan, Prof Padmini Shankar and Prof. Jayashree Mohanraj for their support and guidance.

I would like to thank all the staff of ELE at EFLU.

The participants of the study, the government school students and teachers, Ranga Reddy, Hyderabad, for willing to be part of the study and their co-operation.

I thank the ELE office staff Mrs. Pallavi and Mrs. Laxmi for their help; Mr. Pavan, Xerox, library.

A special mention and thanks to the staff of Ramesh Mohan Library, particularly Mr. Raju, for helping me locate the books needed for the study. Sagar Anna, thank you very much for being with us and providing me with all the required materials when approached.
I heartily thank my beloved friend, P. Ravi Kumar who is of immense help in providing inputs, informing gaps and for proofreading the entire thesis. Thank you, Swamy Bairi, for informing gaps and offering valuable suggestions.

Thanks to my friends who all helped me and encouraged me in all the stages of my research., Ravi Kumar Perumalla, Sai Durga, Swamy Bairi, Rammuni Reddy, G. Ravi Anna, Sravan, M. Anji, D. Narshima, Venkanna I, Kankan, Arul Nehru, Rajender Reddy, G. Satyam, Rajesh. G, K. Kumar, K. Srinivas. In case I have not mentioned any, my deepest and sincere thanks to all.

I would like to thank my parents – Mr. K. Venkataiah and Mrs. K. Balamma, sisters-Mrs. L. Laxmi and Mrs. B. Rajitha and brother- K. Mahipal for their constant support all through my education.

I would like to thank my better half, my wife, B. Rajini, who has rendered selflessly and typed most part of the thesis, stood by my side, and encouraged me in every phase of writing the thesis. A special thanks to my little angel, my daughter, Aradhya Kemmasarapu, for her presence, which makes me forget the entire world. Before this thesis is conceived, we welcomed a new born, my son, into our family. It was a delightful moment to see him, being born, just before my thesis is submitted.

I would also like to thank my In-laws, Mr. B. Yellaiah and Mrs. B. Laxmi and my nephew, B.Yeshwanth Kiran, for all their support.

If I have not mentioned anyone who has supported and helped in doing my study, my great gratitude extends to him / her.
