When you start your journey with firm foot to stop at a peak, then it seems that I myself have to carry up to that peak. Once you finish your journey and land on that peak, you realize that, had it not been the firm support and friendly push of people across the journey, the journey would have been a daydream without any saga of peak in it. It is not possible to undervalue the support and faith of people showed to me, still God has given me this small opportunity to express my string of harmony overloaded with feelings of gratitude to all who guided and uplifted me to this peak. It’s only a small opportunity in comparison to the good will shown by people to me. Several people have been instrumental in making this thesis possible and I grab this opportunity to thank them all for their invaluable contributions.

First and foremost I acknowledge Padmashree Dr. G.C. Mishra, Director, for providing me an opportunity to work at NCCS and for providing all the facilities. Above all his constant moral support was the driving force behind achieving my goal.

I feel myself expressionless and word deficit to overstate my gratitude and heartfelt indebtedness to my PhD. Supervisor Dr. Sandhya Sitasawad. She helped me, guided me to the best of her abilities whenever I was in predicament. Her encouraging words acts like a magic potion for me. Her encouraging support, endeavor inspiration, perseverance and sound knowledge have contributed immense towards the fulfillment of this work.

My earnest and honest thanks to Dr. Padma Shastry for providing me indispensable suggestions and congenial work atmosphere in the laboratory, I gratefully and admirably acknowledge her help in successful completion of this thesis.

I hereby confess my soul signature to thank Dr. Deshpande and Dr. Parab for their invaluable visionary suggestions on future aspects.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. Mohan Wani for mentoring and guiding me there whenever required.

I would like to express my deep feelings for Dr. Ramanmurthy, Dr. Kohale, Dr. Bankar, Seikh, Sanjay, Shelke, Inamdar and entire animal house staff for supplying experimental animals from time to time.

For financial support I acknowledge the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) for the financial assistance and contingency grants during the tenure as well to DBT for providing the infrastructure required.

I wish to express my gratitude towards Dr. Shouche for providing hostel accommodation, Dr. Milind Patole and the staff of repository and media section Anjali for supplying cell lines and media whenever required. I express my gratitude to Mrs. Ashwini Atre for helping me with Confocal Studies, Swapnil Pratibha and Hemangini, for their assistance in flow cytometry.

I sincerely acknowledge the support provided by the washing and packing section,
Mr. Suresh Basutkar and all his team members for providing the essential apparatus for work, I thank Mr. Sindagi for his great help with maintenance and operation of instruments. I am thankful to the staff of computer section for the co-operation and help in using the facilities.
Heartfelt thanks are also due to Mr. Nema, Mrs. Panse and other library staff.

I thank all the office staff members in the Academic, Administration, Accounts and Stores & Purchase sections for their help and co-operation. Limitation of space is what restricts me from adding all the names of people who have in some or the other way helped me.

My sincere thanks to my lab mates who have been there always with free hand assistance and encouraged me and maintained a pleasant work environment. I thank to Sudheer, Varshiesh, Sayeed, Sunita Kaul (late), Vandana, Sandeep, Vasundhara, Radha, Gowry, Mrunthunjaya, Jayshree, Deval, Tanuja and Sonia.

My tenure at NCCS would not have been the same without the love, affection, positive feedback, constant critics, soul and body enthralling experience and all round support of my friends Neesar, Mumtaz, Santosh, Malik, Roopesh (from NIV), Sri Nath, Shweta and Vikas for their inputs and suggestions during the preparation of this thesis.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Sandeep Singh (my room mate) who was always there to help me in my ups and downs. I will never be able to forget the wonderful company of all D-2 flat guys especially Saravana, shakti, Sunil, Shyam for making my stay a pleasant one and sharing the incorrigible humors.

Many thanks to the fellow colleagues from the other labs especially Bhaskar, Surajit, Gautam, Shaﬁni, Sulabh, Ranbeer, Rupesh, Gitaljali, Bhavna, Mukesh, Pankaj, Amrutesh, Martin, Raghu, Sachin, Sunmit, Vasudha, Deepak, Mahesh, Aizaz, Ankur, Ajay, Vimal, Anchal, Ratna, Praveena, Shashi, Tripti, Sri Kumar, Thank you all for all the things you did for me.

I take this opportunity to thank my family, for their selfless help and constant endless support. I extend my gratitude to my parents-they bore me, raised me, supported me, taught me, and loved me. I just won’t thank my brother Ashutosh but would like to express my love for being such a nice younger brother with vibrant mind and soft heart. My sisters deserve a bounty with lots of thank for being wall of determination behind me through out my tenure. I thank my wife Chanchal for being patient and compassionate better half. I really want to say that she just stayed behind firmly like a true better half and pillar of strength.
My niece Sikku, Choti, Bittu, Shubham and Ishu deserves ecstatic mention here because of their special attachment with me. In this meticulous journey there were two little angels, Ahana & Ashna who always loved me with smile on their face. They really act like a stress buster for me. All I can say that being a minuscule it’s not possible for me to undue the good will and selflessness of people showered on me. It’s just to refresh my heart with the soft gestures, polite look, and humble nature of people during my fruitful journey.

I thank The Almighty for His blessings without which this work would not have been possible.
