

Etkin NL. 1992. ““Side Effects”: Cultural Constructions and Reinterpretations of Western Pharmaceuticals,” Medical Anthropology Quarterly 6:99–113

305

Jeffery, R. “Tracing Pharmaceuticals in South Asia: Regulation, Distribution and Consumption’ project” A project (2006-09) funded by the Economic and Social Research Commission (ESRC) and DFID, United Kingdom, carried out by researchers in Nepal at Martin Chautari and in India at the Centre for Health and Social Justice, in collaboration with the University of Edinburgh. http://www.san.ed.ac.uk/__data/assets/pdf_file/0006/8853/tracingpharma_sasia.pdf.

Locost/JSS, 2004. Impoverishing the Poor: Pharmaceuticals and Drug Pricing in India, Vadodara/Bilaspur: Locost/JSS.

Rane, Wishwas. 2003. “Why Risk Our Children to Nimesulide,” Health Action,

312
Shiva, Mira. 2000. Medicines, Medical Care and Drug Policy, From the Detail Report of The Independent Commission on Health in India New Delhi: Voluntary Health Association of India.

Srinivasan, Sandhya. 2009. Ethical Concerns in Clinical Trials in India: An Investigation. Study Conducted by Centre for Studies in Ethics and Rights, Mumbai: India.

