Acknowledgement

It need not to be stressed that the combined efforts of both the teacher and student are indispensable for achieving success. For the teacher, it requires sincerity and hard work to sum up. So first of all I express my deepest appreciation to Dr. C.K. Srivastava, Associate Professor, Physics Department, D.A.V. College, Kanpur for his worthy suggestions and keen interest during my research.

I am deeply thankful to Dr. Rajeev Shukla, Associate Professor, Chemistry Department, V.S.S.D. College, Kanpur whose utmost cooperation helped me in producing quality work.

I express my heartiest thanks to my beloved husband Dr. Atul Srivastava who has taken too much pain in accelerating the work. His dedication and motivation helped me for providing sound base to my research work as well as encouragement during the work.

I want to express my deep love to my son Veer whose smiling face motivates me always.

I am also thankful to Mr. Pawan for computer assistance and typing work and to Mr. Ajay Nigam for his kind support.

I am thankful to all my colleagues and friends who have always motivated and inculcated encouragement throughout my research work.

I also take this opportunity to express my sincere regards and gratitude to my parents and all my family members for their blessing & affection without which this work would never have been completed.
