ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

To complete the investigations presented in the thesis, the researcher has availed an opportunity to study the literature of the Fluid Mechanics. In addition, during the period of research work the researcher has studied the contributions of so many learned authors through books and journals to complete investigations. Therefore, the researcher feels his moral indebtedness to all of them.

At this occasion the researcher owes a deep debt of gratitude to Dr. Atul Kumar Singh, M. Sc. (Maths.), Ph. D. (Maths.), D. Sc. (Maths.), Reader, Department of Mathematics, V. S. S. D. College, Kanpur-208002, under whose able guidance and supervision this work has been completed. His unique aptitude regarding research work, valuable guidance and supervision in the preparation of this work is praiseworthy. His sympathetic attitude has always been a source of inspiration to the researcher. The researcher has no words to express his deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Singh and will ever remain indebted.

The researcher submits his deepest regards to Dr. K. K. Tiwari, Principal, V. S. S. D. College, Kanpur-208002 for availability of books and journals in the college library. He is equally thankful to Dr. T. N. Trivedi, Reader & Head, Department of Mathematics, V. S. S. D. College, Kanpur-208002, whose comments and enlightening discussions helped him during the period of research. work. The librarians of I. I. T., Delhi, I. I. T., Kanpur and C. S. J. M. University, Kanpur library for their cooperation in providing all necessary facilities and guidance for locating the suitable reference books and Journals on the subject during the period of research work.

The researcher owes a deep debt of gratitude to Prof. N. P. Singh, M. Sc. (Maths.), M. A. (Econ.), M. Com., M. Ed., Ph. D. (Econ.), Ph. D. (Maths.), D. Sc. (Maths.), M. N. A. Sc., Professor and Head of Mathematics, Department of Applied Sciences and Humanities, Kanpur Institute of Technology, Kanpur-208007 (Permanent address: 236, Durga Nagar, Firozabad-283203) for valuable discussions during the period of research work. This thesis is dedicated to a well-known researcher for his sustained interest in this thesis work and constant encouragement throughout the period of research work. The sweet memories of interactions with him during the working period have gone a long way to charge the researcher in his present endeavor. The researcher shall fail in his duty if he does not express, at this juncture of thesis submission, his sense of gratitude and deep respect for the inspiration, which has provided the necessary momentum to the researcher in achieving this golden day.

The researcher feels his moral duty to thank Dr. Ajay Kumar Singh, M. Sc. (Maths.), M. A. (Socio.), M. Ed., Ph. D. (Maths.), Ph. D. (Socio.), Ph. D. (Education), Senior Research Scholar, Department of Mathematics, C. L. Jain College, Firozabad-283203 and at present Lecturer of Mathematics, Tilak Inter College, Firozabad-283203, who helped me not only through his valuable comments and scholarly help during my period of research work but also helped in providing computational help for figures and tables. The researcher feels indebtedness for his sympathetic attitude.

The researcher is also thankful to his research colleagues, Mr. Arvind Kumar, Mr. Akhilesh Kumar, Mr. Pawan Kumar Sharma and Mr. Dalvir Singh for their cooperation during the period of the research work.

The researcher feels to express his deep sense of honour to his parents (Shri. Ram Praksh, Smt. Lata Rani), Nana, Babu Ram and Nani Prakashbati, family members, relatives and well wishers who always inspired him to work hard for the present research work. The researcher is specially thankful to his elder sister Km. Preeti and younger brother Ankit.

At last but not the least, the researcher is grateful to all those who have directly or indirectly helped him during the period of research work.
