ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am deeply indebted and express my abstruse gratitude as well as regards to my supervisors Prof. Deepak Kumar and Dr. R.G. Sharma for their ineffable source of guidance, inspiration and keen initiation during the entire course of this thesis work. Their diligent and inveterate supervision diluvial not only my scientific understanding but also tilth a sense of reasoning in scientific research. No words are adequate and just a sprinkle to write few words for them.

I am thankful to Prof. S. Duttagupta, the then Dean, SPS-JNU and Prof. S.K. Joshi, the then Director of NPL (presently D.G. CSIR) for their kind permission to carry out the present experimental work at NPL and extended all the central facilities of NPL.

I wish to thank Prof. R. Ramaswamy, present Dean of the school for providing the necessary facilities and helping me time to time in computer simulation. I am also thankful to Prof. E.S. Rajagopal, the present Director of NPL.

I am grateful to Mr. Y.S. Reddy for his generous help. It was immense pleasure to work with him. I would like to thank Mr. M.M. Krishna for his help. I also cherish the amiable and amicable gestures of Dr. (Ms.) P.L. Upadhyay for her sensorious advice during my stay at NPL as well as at the final stage of the thesis. Her personal affection is really remarkable.

I am especially thankful to Dr. A.K. Rastogi, Dr. P. Sen, Dr. R. Ghosh, Dr. H. Bohidar and Dr. S. Srakar for their useful discussions as well as help during my work.
I am thankful to my friends Kapil, Sanjoy, Shahnaz, Poonam, Tabish, Bibhu, Yudhisthira, Siddhartha, Shuklaji and Rupa whose help knew no bounds whenever needed.

An incommensurate appreciation to my friends and colleagues Sudip and Biswanath for their meek disposition which has no parallel. Their ample of privileges have always instated a mirthful atmosphere for work.

Finally my solemn gratitudes are towards my parents, brothers, bhabhi, sisters and brothers-in-law who have taken the pain of being far away from me. Their priceless affection have sprout the spirit to reach my goal. My enchanting brother, Sharad Bhaiyya, who has ensconced me from the very beginning of my life and his cheerful advices have always made me comprehensive and determined.

I appreciate the countenance of Swati, Prasoon, Bachchana, Smita, Saurabh, Nikhil, Vartika, Anshu, Nishu, Isha, Neha, Megha, Mishu, Yashi, Varsha, Honshu and Venu who always have imparted sweetness to my feelings even though they were far off.

At last I am thankful to JNU (UGC) for providing the research fellowship to carry out this work.
