ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude towards my Supervisor, Prof. R.C. Thakran for his constant guidance, understanding and encouragement for this work. I am also thankful to Prof. P. Bhatia who introduced me to the study of numismatics. I must thank the Department of History, University of Delhi, for providing me with an extension to complete this work and my college – Satyawati College, University of Delhi, for allowing me to take a study leave to complete my Ph.D. thesis.

I must acknowledge the assistance received from Dr. I.P. Pandey, (Assistant Director, State Museum, Lucknow), Dr. Prabhakar Pandey (Incharge Terracotta and Numismatic, Allahabad Museum) and Girraj Prasad (Guide Lecturer, Government Museum, Mathura), for studying the coin cabinets of their respective museums and for procurement of the photographs of coins and sculptures. I am thankful to Ajay Kumar Gurjar and Yashpal for their help in preparation of maps.

I shall always remember the help extended to me by the staff of National Museum Library, Indian Council of Historical Research Library, Archaeological Survey of India Library, The American Institute of Indian Studies (Gurgaon), Central Reference Library (University of Delhi) and the library of the Department of History, University of Delhi.

I cannot express enough thanks to my parents, father-in-law and brother for encouraging me and showing affectionate interest in my work. I sincerely appreciate the help extended to me by my friends, especially Sriparna, Gopika and Gajendra. I deeply appreciate the assistance of my husband, Navendu, without whom this work would never have taken this shape.

Thanks are due to Sandeep Poudyal for computer work of this thesis.
