In the research work leading to this thesis several people helped me in various ways providing me constructive suggestions, information, source materials. They helped me locate other sources and personal contacts coupled with guidance and moral support.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor Dr. N. Pramodini Devi, Associate Professor in the Department of Linguistics, Manipur University, for her able guidance and supervision of this work. Any mistakes that remain are of course my own.

I also take the opportunity to thank Shri B. Kulachandra Sharma for his invaluable suggestions and advice. I am also indebted to Dr. A. Sharat Sharma for his valuable guidance in course of my academic career and research work.

Grateful acknowledgments are due to my father Sorokhaibam Rupoban Singh Retd. Superintendent, state Archeology Manipur and my mother Sorokhaibam Shakhenbi, lecture in the dept.of Manipur, T.G.Higher Sec. School for their invaluable support, guidance and love throughout my academic career.

I am grateful to all the staff of the Manipur University library for their help during my research work.
I remember with gratitude all the help rendered to me by Dr.Ch. Tuleshori Devi and Maam H. Mereena.

I also take the opportunity to thank W.Saritarani, P.Pusparani, Sujeta.B and T.Bijaya, for their valuable suggestions, critical comments and co-operation.

I would like to acknowledge the University Grant Commission for granting me their doctoral fellowship which supported me financially during my research work.

Last, but not the least my heart-felt thanks are to my brothers S. Nongyinphaba and S. James, my sister S. Supriya and my sister-in-law S. Bitu for their constant encouragement and inspiration throughout my research work. Without their warm understanding and unselfish support, I would not have been able to submit this research work.
