Acknowledgement

I thank my friend Mr. Thanga Tonsing who suggested to me to do this important research work. I am very grateful to him for his full co-operation and constant association with me throughout the course of my work.

My sincere gratitude goes to Pu Professor Laldena for his noble and affectionate cooperation, who kept no stone unturned to give me precious advice and suggestion which were so paramount for the discourse of my entire work.

My eldest brother Shri Sona Thangkhopau Ngaihte, I.A.S. (Retd.), all of my other elder and younger brothers, my wife, sons and daughter were so inspiring and co-operative for my work. I thank them all.

Also Credit goes to the village chiefs, village elders, Pastors, Church leaders, my friends and all other persons whom I had contacted and who had given me momentous information and valuable cooperation. I can not denied but also acknowledged the essence of the books, journals, magazines, anniversary publications, newspapers, letters and other publications which I had collected and purchase from different sources.

Last, but not the least is the entire credit of my work and its accomplishment goes to Professor. M. Jitendra Singh, Head of Department of History, Manipur University, under whose guidance and invaluable supervision this research work is being carried out and completed.
