ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It was about six years ago when I had embarked on my quest to obtain my Degree of Doctorate of Philosophy. While this long journey has been arduous it has also been exhilarating and has helped me gain new and varied experiences, accumulate a wealth of knowledge and interact with amazingly talented and gifted people. Now, when I am at the cusp of achieving my coveted and long awaited goal it is most appropriate that I acknowledge the contributions of all who have made this moment possible.

In the first place, I would like to record my most sincere gratitude to my mentor, Dr. S.C. Naithani, Professor, School of Life Sciences, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur, for his constant supervision, wholehearted advice and guidance from the very early stages of this research and for giving me extraordinary experiences throughout this long journey. His truly scientific intuition has made him a fountainhead of incisive ideas and insights in science which helped my growth and development as a student and a researcher. Above all, he provided me unceasing encouragement and support in various ways and I would always remain indebted to him.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Keshavkant Sahu, Assistant Professor, School of Life Sciences, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur. I thank him for his invaluable suggestions, timely advice, productive scientific discussion and constant support.
I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. V. Rai, Professor and Ex-Head, School of Life Sciences, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur, and Dr. A.K. Pati Professor and Head, School of Life Sciences, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur for their consistent guidance and kind help during the tenure of my research work. I am thankful to the faculty and supporting staff of the department for helping me in completing this work.

I also express my gratitude to the Principal and Management of St. Thomas College, Bhilai for extending their generous support. I sincerely acknowledge the contribution of University Grants Commission (UGC) Minor Research Project for providing the much needed financial support.

I gratefully acknowledge Mrs. Ranjana Naithani for her advice, moral support, supervision and her important contribution during the tenure of thesis preparation.

I would also like to thank everyone with whom I have interacted at Seed Biology Lab, School of Life Sciences, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur. In particular, Mr. Avinash Soni for helping with his special skills in handling precisely delicate equipments, Mr. Srinivas Rao for his advice and help which was really fruitful, Miss Jyotirmeye Pradhan and Miss Suruchi Parkhey for their untiring help and cooperation whenever required.

I must express my gratitude to Mrs. Vinita Thomas, with whom I started this journey for obtaining my Ph.D. She was the first person who introduced me to the people at the Seed Biology lab. My warm thanks also to my friend, Mrs. Meenakshi Bharadwaj for her constant encouragement and help throughout my study.

No words can express my deep sense of gratitude to my beloved late mother-in-law, Mrs. Shobinder Kaur for her selfless love, constant encouragement, willing sacrifices and blessings. I have special regards for my father-in-law, Mr. Harjinder Singh who has always encouraged me and provided me all the support. I also thank my parents for their love, care and encouragement bestowed upon me.

Words would fail to express my appreciation for my husband, Mr. Kulbinder Singh Bakshi whose dedication, love and unflinching confidence in me always encouraged me to surge ahead despite all setbacks. Without his support it would have been almost impossible for me to complete my project. During these long years my children, Harsh and Bishen - the precious jewels of my life, have been a continuous source of happiness and joy, and the magic of their love and laughter always provided me strength and energy during my long hours of study and research.

I gratefully acknowledge Mr. S.P.S Jaggi and Mr. Amit Saluja for their persistent encouragement and support lend to me always in various ways. I want to give special thanks to Mr. Gagandeep Oberoi for his prayers and concern.
Finally, the words at my command are not adequate to express my gratitude to The Almighty for His countless and uninterrupted blessings, without which this work would have been impossible to complete. I humbly seek His infinite compassion for all my future endeavours.

Mrs. Jyoti Bakshi
