Acknowledgements

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to the following body of organization and people who supported my Ph.D. research work in various ways:

For the scholarship:
The Indian Council for Cultural Relations for granting me the scholarship under the Cultural Exchange Programme 2008-2009 (for P.G. Diploma course) and 2010-2013 (for Ph.D. course), Mishima Kaiun Memorial Foundation Scholarship 2011-2012 (for Ph.D. study), allowing me to complete my Ph.D. course at Deccan College Post-Graduate & Research Institute without which I could not be doing Ph.D. work;

On the Harappan sites and my archaeological studies:
Professor Vasant. S. Shinde (Joint Director of Deccan College, Pune/India) and Extraordinary Professor Hideo Kondo (Tokai University, Kanagawa/Japan) without whose guidance on the Harappan sites and my archaeological studies the present thesis would never be realized;

At Pune:
All the faculty, administration and library members of Deccan College, but especially Dr. G.B. Deglurkar (President of Deccan College), Shri. N.S. Gaware (Previous Register of Deccan College), Shri. C.V. Joshi (Register of Deccan College), Professor V.P. Bhatta (Director of Deccan College), Mrs. Hole Pratibha, Mr. Jagannath G. Kulkarni, Mr. Shyam Walke, Mr. Vijay S. Kute and Mr. Mukund M. Londhe who helped me greatly with the various aspects of everyday life at Deccan College, Professor emeritus K. Paddayya (the previous director of Deccan College), Dr. M.D.
Kajale (the previous head of Department of Archaeology of Deccan College), Professor B.C. Deotare (the head of Department of Archaeology of Deccan College), Professor Sheila Mishra, Professor V.G. Sathe, Professor P.P. Joglekar, Professor R.K. Mohanty, Professor S.G. Deo, Professor P.D. Sabale, Dr. Shahida Ansari, Dr. A. Deshpande Mukherjee and Dr. S. Jadhav who were always happy to answer my various questions at Deccan College, Dr. Amol Kulkarni, Dr. Prabodh Shirvalkar, Dr. Amrita Sarkar, Dr. Ajmal Shah and Mrs. Manisha Pathak for helping me at Deccan College and on the site of Farmana, especially Mr. Prateek Chakraborty who corrected my English sincerely;

In Rohtak and Farmana:

All the faculty members of the Department of History, Maharishi Dayanand University (Rohtak/India), but especially Professor Manmohan Kumar, Professor Amar Singh, Dr. Vivek Dangi and Mr. Vikas Powar who helped me in many ways in the course of this study, and all the villagers who participated in the Farmana Excavation for helping me on the site of Farmana and the village of Faramna;

In Chandigarh and Panchkula:

All the members of Department of Archaeology & Museums, Haryana (Panchkula/India), but especially Dr. M. Acharya, Mr. Ranvir Singh Shastry, Mr. Rajender Singh Daliya and Professor Ashuini Agrawal (Department of Ancient Indian History, Culture & Archaeology, Punjab University);

In Kurukshetra:

All the faculty members of Shri Krishna Museum (Kurukshetra/India), but especially Mr. Rajesh Purohit (previous Deputy Director), Mr. Rajendra Singh Rana and Mr. Balwan Singh for their help;
In Peshawar:

All the faculty members of the University of Peshawar (Peshawar/Pakistan), but especially Professor M.F. Swati, Professor T. Ali, Professor I. Ali (Previous director of the Museum of Peshawar, Peshawar/Pakistan) and Mr. N. Sehrai who answered my many questions;

In Khairpur:

All the faculty members of Archaeology & Anthropology Museum, Shah Abdul Latif University (Khairpur, Sindh/Pakistan), but especially Professor Nilofer Shaikh, Professor Qasid Hussain Mallah and Professor Ghulam Mohiuddin Veesar for their cooperation and kindness;

On the South Asian archaeological studies:

Professor J.M. Kenoyer (the University of Wisconsin, Madison/USA), Professor emeritus Asko Parpola (the University of Helsinki, Helsinki/Finland), Assistant Professor J.S. Kharakwal (Institute of Rajasthan Studies, JRN Rajasthan Vidyapeeth, Udaipur/India), Professor P. Ajithrasad, Professor K.K. Bhan (Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Gujat/India), Dr. R.S. Bisht (Previous Joint Director-General of Archaeological Survey of India), Dr. K.C. Nauriyal (Archaeological Survey of India), Professor M.R. Mughal (the University of Boston, Boston/USA), Professor Mayank N. Vahia, Ms. Nisha Yadav (Department of Astronomy and Astrophysics, Tata Institute of Fundamental Research) and Mr. Wazir Chand Saroae (Friend of Archaeology, Rakhi Garhi) for helping me on the study of South Asian archaeology;

For endless advice and support from Japan:

Dr. Akinori Uesugi (Visiting scholar of the University of Wisconsin, Madison/USA), Professor Yoshitaka Hojo, Professor Hitoshi Kamuro and Professor Takehaya
Matsumoto, Associate professor Kanako Akita and Assistant Professor Shunichi Miyahara (Tokai University, Kanagawa/Japan), Professor emeritus Masatoshi A. Konishi (Rikkyo University, Tokyo/Japan), Professor Manabu Koiso (Kobe Shukugawa Gakuin University, Kobe/Japan), Associate Professor Hideaki Shudai (Turumi University, Kanagawa/Japan), Dr. Seiji Nakayama (Manager of curator section, Yamanashi Prefectural Museum, Yamanashi/Japan), Mr. Masatoshi Tao (Tokai University, Kanagawa/Japan), Mr. Atsushi Noguchi (Archaeological Research Society of Meiji University, Tokyo/Japan), Associate Professor Ryosuke Furui (Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia, the University of Tokyo), Professor emeritus Toshiki Osada (previous Professor Research Institute for Humanity and Nature, Kyoto/Japan), Professor Kenichi Sasaki (Meiji University, Tokyo/Japan), Associate Professor Chihiro Koiso (Research Institute for World Languages, the University of Osaka, Osaka/Japan), Professor Sumiko Kubo (Geography, School of Education, Waseda University, Tokyo/Japan), Professor Haruhisa Mifune and Associate Professor Takekazu Nagae (Faculty of Art and Design, the University of Toyama, Toyama/Japan), Dr. Tatsundo Koizumi (Waseda University, Tokyo/Japan), Mr. Ryuji Shikaku, Mr. Hiroshi Sudo (Okayama Orient Museum, Okayama/Japan), Dr. Hidetoshi Tsumoto (Ancient Orient Museum, Tokyo/Japan), Mr. Yasuji Shimizu, Mr. Taisuke Aoyagi (Archaeological Institute of Kashihara, Nara/Japan), Dr. Yui Arimatsu (Post-Doctral Research Fellow of Japan Society for the Promotion of Science, the University of Hiroshima, Hiroshima/Japan), Mr. Isamu Sasaki, Mr. Shin Yokoyama, Dr. Fumito Chiba, Mrs. Mineko Imada (Laboratory for Archaeology and Geoinformatics, Morioka/Japan), Shigemoto Sasaki (previous Deputy Director of Tohoku Historical Museum, Miyagi/Japan), Mr. Hitoshi Endo (Research Institute for Humanity and Nature, Kyoto/Japan), Mr. Masao Senmoto (Tokai University, Kanagawa/Japan), Mr. Masao Noguchi (senior student of Tokai University, Kanagawa/Japan) and Mr. Masahiko Sato (student of the same class in Tokai University, Kanagawa/Japan) who helped me on the many aspects of my study;
All the members of the Indian Archaeological Society (Tokyo/Japan), the Japanese Society for West Asian Archaeology (Tokyo/Japan), the Society for Quarterly of Archaeological Studies (Okayama/Japan), The Paleological Association of Japan (Kyoto/Japan), The society for Near Eastern Studies in Japan (Tokyo/Japan) for giving me many opportunities to present the results of my study;

Last but not least, I would like to express my graduate to Koji Konasukawa and Junko Konasukawa (my parents), Makoto Konasukawa (younger brother), Akane Konasukawa (younger sister) and all of relatives, especially Youichi Oohashi (uncle) for permitting me to remain as student and unemployed and stay in a foreign land for such a long time.

Bahut Dhanyavad !!!!!

AYUMU KONASUKAWA

Department of Archaeology

DECCAN COLLEGE
Post-Graduate & Research Institute
(Declared as Deemed-to-be-University under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956)
Pune – 411 006, Maharashtra, India

kotdiji@hotmail.co.jp