ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The writing of this dissertation has been one of the most significant challenges I have ever had to face. Without the support, patience, guidance of the following people this study would not have been completed. It is to them I owe my sincere gratitude. It is rightly quoted by Cicero in 43 B.C. ‘Gratitude’ is not only the greatest virtues but the parent of all others. It is absolutely the way to bring more into your life.

I foremost thank God, the Almighty for blessing me with the three ‘D’s. Determination, Dedication and Diligence during the research work. I would like to show my greatest appreciation to Dr. N.G. Meshram, my guide who has been instrumental in the successful completion of my thesis. His constant motivation, support, moral boosting, precious time and encouragement helped me in my endeavour to complete my research work. His knowledge and erudition have enriched me as a student and as a person.

I am deeply thankful to Jagdishprasad Jhabarmal Tibrewala University, Rajasthan which provided me the platform to start my research work. I also thank respected Dr. Vinod Tibrewala, Dr. D.D. Agarwal Ex-Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Abiranjan, Dr. Anju Singh and Mr. Gopinath, for the endearing support and co-operation rendered to me during the period of this study. I also thank the library staff of Jawaharlal Nehru Library, SNDT library and British Council library for their help in finding and making available access to the various sources.

I would like to express my deep felt thanks to the GAET Trustees Madam Sunita Goenka and Madam Usha Raina who have permitted me to take time off to complete my study. They have also been the pillars of strength and support to help me keep a balanced attitude in school administration and doing research work for my study.

I am fortunate to have friends and well-wishers who have helped me unconditionally during the years of research work. I would sincerely thank Dr. Rashmi Kulkarni, Dr. Shilpa Desai, Ms. Anita Luther, Ms. Renuka Jena, Ms.
Shradha Vohra and Dr. Madhavi Sheth who have continuously supported and guided me. I also sincerely thank them for their fruitful suggestions.

I profusely thank all my colleagues and friends, both teaching and administrative for co-operating with me and unflinchingly bearing up with my moods during this phase of my life.

Furthermore, I offer my special thanks to my mother and daughter who urged me to take up this challenge. My mother’s spiritual support, my daughter Nithya’s and son Satyajit’s love, sacrifices and constant positive thoughts helped me sail through this difficult phase of my life.

My mother and mother-in-law’s dream of seeing me with a doctoral degree and constant motivational words edged me on to complete my thesis. They were the driving force and my backbone during my study.

Last but not the least, I owe my love, sincere gratitude to my father who has provided me the necessary moral support from time to time and to my husband Mr. K.B. Narayanan without whose support and conviction, pursuing a doctorate would have still been just a dream.

I express my gratitude to all my family members for their constant source of inspiration to do the best in life and face the changes and challenges in life with grit and fortitude. I will never ever forget their advices and the highest appreciation, is to not to utter words but to live by them.
