

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset I would like to thank my supervising teacher Dr. P. J. George for his patient and meticulous supervision. He has been a source of inspiration to me.

I place on record my gratitude to the Principal, teachers, and the office staff of St. Thomas College Pala. I thank the Principal and my fellow teachers at St. Thomas College, Kozhencherry. I also thank the UGC and the Manager of St Thomas College Kozhencherry, for allowing me to avail UGC-FDP.

I fondly remember the late Dr. T. K. Ramachandran with whom I first started to explore the work of Edward Said. I thank Dr. Pramod K. Nayar for inviting me to participate in a seminar on Edward Said at Hyderabad Central University. I am grateful to Dr. K. M. Krishnan for his observations on my project. I am also thankful to the library staff at JNU, HCU, and EFLU for helping me gather resources.

I am extremely grateful to my fellow researchers Elizabeth John and Libus Jacob Abraham for their constant support and encouragement. I thank my friends Dr. Aleena Manoharan, Dr. Rayson K. Alex, Dr. Aswathy Balachandran, and Sebin Justine for all their help.

I thank my parents for their perennial sacrifice, my sister and her family, and my wife's parents too. My family has borne the brunt of my research, and I know that Rinku, Daya, and Diya will be the happiest, when the doors are no longer barred!

I humbly bow in front of the amazing grace that has sustained me throughout.
