

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To translate ideas and insights into a thesis takes a team. My thesis too is a synergistic product. First and foremost I would like to thank my supervising guide, Dr. N. C. JACOB for being extremely devoted, infinitely patient, and enormously supportive throughout this study. I remember with deep gratitude how patiently he taught, coached and mentored me in deepening my understanding.

I have greatly benefitted from the motivation and resourcefulness of Dr. N. Remakantan, Former Director of Kerala Institute of Local Administration. Even in the midst of his busy schedules, he has contributed a lot for the realization of this work. I am obliged to Dr. Monisusan Thomas former Head of the Department of Political Science, Maharajas College, Ernakulam for the inspiration, encouragement and support and also for helping me hone my expression of the concepts. I also acknowledge the support rendered by Prof. M D Anil, Dr. N. Jayakumar and Prof. G. Neelakantan Namboothiri. I would like to acknowledge the support given by Dr. Gangesh, Dr. Rajesh Department of English Maharajas College Ernakulam. Special thanks to The Principal, staff and all my colleagues of Maharaja's College, Ernakulam, especially, and all my colleagues of the Department for their constant motivation and support.

My thanks are also due to The Principal, HOD, staff and the Library staffs of St.Thomas College Pala for the assistance provided. CDS Library, Public Library, C. Achutha Menon Study Centre, Library of Maharaja's College, Ernakulam and the Libraries of Department of Political Science Karyavattom. I express my love and gratitude to all my family members, especially my beloved parents, Thanks to all my friends and well-wishers. I have been blessed with a mighty team of them. I acknowledge the meticulous service rendered by Minitex Computer Centre MGUniversity Kottayam towards the final setting of the thesis. Above all, I bow my head and dedicate all my efforts to The Almighty.
