

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I am deeply indebted and thankful to my research supervisor Prof. Dr. V. Rhymend Uthariaraj, Director, Ramanujan Computing Center, Anna University, Chennai for his continuous support, constant encouragement and for his valuable guidance and time. Without his motivation and support, this venture would not have reached its present stage.

I convey my deep gratitude and profound thanks to Prof. Dr. Vincent Charles, Institute of Marine Studies, Peru University, Peru for his unassuming technical guidance and motivation. My profound thanks to late Dr. T.R. Natesan, Professor Emeritus, Anna University for his initial support and guidance.

I would like to place on my record my sincere thanks to doctoral committee members Prof. Dr. K. Suryaprakasa Rao, Department of Industrial Engineering, Prof. Dr. P. Narayanasamy, Department of Computer Science and Engineering, Anna University, Chennai for their valuable suggestions and technical insight. I also acknowledge the help extended by Dr. R. Hemavathy, Assistant Professor, Eswari Engineering College, Chennai for her valuable suggestions during the thesis preparation.

My special thanks to my family for their understanding and patience especially to my wife Mrs. M. Bhuvana Udhayakumar for bearing with me during my arduous task. My thanks are due to my friends and well wishers who have either directly or indirectly helped me in carrying out the research work.

A.UDHAYAKUMAR
