DECLARATION

I state as required by the University rules, that the work incorporated in this thesis entitled “A Study of Occupational Environment and Health Impacts on Cotton Ginning Workers” has not been submitted on any previous occasion to this or any other university for any degree.

The work presented in this thesis is original and references to work of others have been cited as such and the relative sources of information indicated in bibliography. The data generated during this work will prove applicable as baseline study for occupational health disorders and maintaining healthy workplace environment in industries.

It is hoped that this investigation will contribute to the advancement of knowledge about effects of occupational environment on health and its management.

Kamalesh J. Dube
(Research Student)
Acknowledgement

My first and sincere appreciation goes to Prof. S. T. Ingle, my guide for all I have learned from him and for his continuous help and support in all stages of my work. I would also like to thank him for being an open person to ideas, and for encouraging and helping me to shape my interest and ideas.

I am thankful to all my Teaching Staff of School of Environmental and Earth Sciences Dr. S.R. Thorat, Dr. S.N. Patil, Dr. P.R. Patil, Dr. S.B. Attarde, Dr. V.M. Rokade, Dr. N.D. Wagh and Mr. K.P. Dandge for their valuable advice and encouragement during my research work.

I express my wholehearted thanks to all research colleagues of the School of Environmental and Earth Sciences, Life Sciences, Mathematical Sciences, Physical Sciences, Chemical Sciences and UDCT.

In addition, I would like to thank all owners and managers of the ginning industries for giving permission for this work in their respective industries. Also, thanks to Dr. Chandrakant Barela and Dr. Premchand Mahajan for providing medical and pathological support during health check up campaign at ginning industries.

Nevertheless, it is necessary to mention the help of laboratory and non-teaching staff of the school which was enthusiastic and helpful during my research period.

My sincere thanks goes to my family members – Mother - Kasturi Dube, Father - Jayant Dube, Sisters - Poonam, Puja, Aarti, Anuradha, Dipali and my wife Tapasya for their continuous love and their supports in my decisions, without which it would have been not possible former to reach my goal.

Last but not least I would like to thanks the entire test subjects for their kind co-operation during collection of the database. I would also like to acknowledge all the helping hands who directly or indirectly contributed for the completion of my research work.

Finally, I would like to thank to God for his grace and blessings.

KAMALESH J. DUBE