BIBLIOGRAPHY

PRIMARY SOURCES

Reports, Documents, etc.

According to the White paper Misuse of Mass Media, issued by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting in August 1976.

Constitution of India. Eighth Schedule, Articles 344 part (1) and 351, page 330.

Constitution of USA, 1791.

To The Lok Sabha, 22 July, 1975.

Universal Declaration of Human Right, 10th December, 1948:4.

INTERVIEWS

Advani, L.K. Member of Parliament and President, Bharatiya Janata Party, Personal Interview, 21 March 2010, on 14th Pant Marg BJP Head Office, New Delhi.

Inder Malhotra. Senior Journalist, Personal Interview in 2010, on India Habitat Center, New Delhi.

Late Choudhary Ranbir Singh (Father of Bhupender Singh Hudda CM of Haryana) was First Member of Constitution Draft Committee, Freedom Fighter and many more, Personal Interview at Triveni Kala Kendra, Mandi House, New Delhi on 2nd October 2007.

Kuldeep Nayar. Senior Journalist, Personal Interview on 29 June 2009 and 2010 at his Residence.

SECONDARY SOURCES

BOOKS

Milton, John. (1644). Aeropagitica Note : Milton, John (1608-1674) - English poet and prose writer who is one of the most highly regarded figures in world literature and is widely considered the greatest poet since Shakespeare. Often called the “Puritan Poet,” he had many of the good traits of the Puritans as well as many of the bad and spent much of his life immersed in political and religious controversy. Areopagitica (1644)- Milton’s best-known prose work is a political pamphlet, which argues against restricting the freedom of the press.

Note:- A Congress Working Committee meeting told itself in April 1977, after the government’s defeat in elections, that the emergency was intended to effect long- neglected social reform, especially for “poor farmers and Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes”, AR, 21-27 May 1977.

Rau, Chatapathi. (1986). Press in India. New Delhi: Allied Publisher, Pvt. Ltd.,

The Asian Communication Handbook. (1998). Published by the Asian Media Information and Communication Center (AMIC) and the School of Communication Studies, Nanyang Technological University

The Prime Minister’s Broadcast to the Nation on Proclamation of Emergency. (1975). New Delhi: Division of Audio-Visual Publicity, GOI.

Wolseley, Ronand and Charlton, A.E. (1953). Journalism in Modern India. California: Asia Publication House, University of California.

ARTICLES

Note:-A Congress Working Committee meeting told itself in April 1977, after the government’s defeat in elections, that the emergency was intended to effect long- neglected social reform, especially for “poor farmers and Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes”, AR, 21-27 May 1977, p. 137-46.

The Prime Minister’s Broadcast to the Nation on Proclamation of Emergency, Division of Audio-Visual Publicity, GOI, New Delhi, 1975

NEWSPAPERS

India Today, November 30, 1989, p.23

Indian Express, 23rd June, 1975, New Delhi

Saturday Review, 9th August 1975.

The Hindu, 2003:13 September

Hindustan Times, July 20, 1972.

WEBSITES

http://www.audiovisualcat.net/publicationsing/Q14india.pdf
http://www.equitymaster.com/research-it/ipo/ndtv.asp
http://www.screenindia.com/jul25/tele2.htm
http://www.indianembassy.org/indiainfo
http://www.india-today.com/itgroup/
[http://www.studio-systems.com/broadfeatures/JFMA98/NDTV/63.htm]
[http://www.ndtvtravels.com/aboutus.asp]
[http://www.time.com/time/asia/magazine/article/0,13673,501030818-474534,00.html]
http://www.chennaionline.com/musicnew/Channels/05indiatv.asp http://www.scatmag.com/tamreach_sept05.pdf
http://www.agencyfaqs.com/media/media_newslets/Media/4899.html
http://www.iht.com/articles/2005/06/26/business/indianew