Acknowledgement

Early in the process of completing this voluminous work it became quite clear to me that a researcher cannot complete a Ph.D. thesis alone. Completing a PhD is truly a marathon event, and I would not have been able to complete this journey without the aid and support of countless people over the past four years. Although the list of individuals I wish to thank extends beyond the limits of this format, I would like to thank the following persons for their dedication, prayers, and support:

I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my Guide Prof. K.Sreeramulu. His wide knowledge and his logical way of thinking have been of great value for me. His understanding, encouragement and personal guidance have provided a good basis for the present thesis. Further his ability to probe beneath the text is a true gift, and his insights have strengthened this study significantly. I will always be thankful for his wisdom, knowledge, and deep concern not only for me, but also for the work undertaken. It has been an honor to work with him.

I am deeply grateful to Prof. G. Gnana Mani, Chairman Research Board of studies for his detailed and constructive comments, and for his important support throughout this work.

I deem it a privilege to thank learnt faculty, Dept of Zoology, Andhra University, Visakhapatnam for their constructive & comprehensive remarks in carrying out my work with utmost dedication & devotion.
I wish to express my warm and sincere thanks to Mr. T. Vijaya Kumar I.A.S., Joint Secretary, Department of Rural Development, GoI & Mission Director, National Rural Livelihood Mission who introduced me to the field of rural development, whose inspiring messages gave me important guidance during my first steps into socio-economic studies of fishermen communities. His ideals and concepts made a remarkable influence on my entire career in the field of upliftment of fisherwomen BPL families.

Special Gratitude goes to Dr. Manmohan Singh I.A.S., Special chief Secretary and the then Commissioner of Fisheries, A.P, Hyderabad for providing Opportunity to work for Rural fisherfolk of East Godavari District.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Sri. Reddy Subramaniyam I.A.S., Principal Secretary, Rural Development, Govt. of A.P, Hyderabad for his constant encouragement and his constructive guidance in working for the coastal communities under IKP /NRLM Projects.

I owe my most sincere gratitude to Commissioner of fisheries Sri. K. Praveen Kumar, I.A.S., who gave me the opportunity to work with Dept of Rural Development and gave me untiring help during my difficult moments.

I warmly thank Mr. B. Rajasekhar I.A.S. Chief Executive Officer, SERP, Hyderabad for his valuable advice and friendly help. His extensive discussions around my work and interesting explorations in poverty alleviation programs have been very helpful for this study.

I would immensely thank Sri. M. Ravichandra I.A.S., the then District Collector for his matchless support, insights and most valuable suggestions in designing several poverty eradication programs for coastal poor. It is indeed a great boon to have him as our Executive Chairman, DRDA, East Godavari.

I most earnestly thank Sri. T. Babu Rao Naidu I.A.S., Joint Collector, West Godavari District for his impeccable support rendered in organizing Fisherwomen CBO’s.

Sincere thanks are extended to Sri. Y. Prakasa Rao, Addl. Director, Dept of Fisheries, A.P, Hyderabad for devoting his precious time and made many valuable suggestions which indeed helped in field exercise.
