ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First I would like to thank the God for having given me to this world, entrusted in me to care & serve for others.

There are huge numbers of peoples who have registered their supports at different stages in different ways for successful completion of this task undertaken by me for the benefit of sericulture farmers in the state of Tamil Nadu and others.

I express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. K.V. Benjamin, Director, NSSO, (Retd.), Central Silk Board (CSB), who has inspired & channelised me for undertaking this high task and for his valuable suggestions throughout this study, my thanks to all the members of the selection committee and the Employer, CSB for having sanctioned me two years study leave to carry out this study and continued supports from the organisation facilitated by Shri.
