ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The investigator offers his best regards and gratitude to his research guide Professor N. B. Biswas, Department of Educational Science, Ashutosh Mukharjee School of Education, Assam University, Silchar, under whose inspiring guidance the present study was undertaken. The investigator is extremely thankful to him for his steady guidance, encouragement, care and concern, insightful suggestions and unstinting support throughout the course of this study. The investigator is also thankful to him for allowing his to use some of the tools standardized by him.

He is glad to express his best regard to Sri Paritosh Chakrabarty, Principa-In-Charge, Institute of Advance Studies In Education, Tripura University for his kind co-operation. He express his deep sense of respect and gratitude to Sri Subrata Sengupta, Director of SCERT, Government of Tripura, for his kind help to collect various information and encouragement during investigation.

The investigator expresses his profound thanks to Sri Asit chowdhury, Assistant Teacher, Mohanpur H.S. School, Government of Tripura and Sri Niresh Das Chowdhury, Assistant Teacher (Retired), Government of Tripura for their help and encouragement extended to this study.

The investigator remembers with gratitude and expresses her heartfelt thanks his mother, wife, brother and daughter for their fruitful suggestions sacrifice and encouragement extended to him.

He is thankful to the heads, teachers and students of the various secondary schools, for their whole-hearted co-operation rendered in the collection of data. He wishes to express his gratitude to the librarians of different schools and Institutions. He would also like to thank his colleagues Bhavans Tripura college of Teacher Education, under Tripura University for their sprit of goodwill and co-operation.

The investigator acknowledges with grateful feelings the support encouragement and help lavished by his friends and well-wishers.

_________________________
Suprasad Lodh