Bibliography

Bibliography
Select Bibliography

PRIMARY SOURCES: INDIAN-ENGLISH NOVELS ON THE PARTITION

Contemporary Marxist Literary Criticism. Ed. Francis Mulhem. London:

Barker, Francis, Peter Hulme and Margaret Iverson. Colonial Discourse/Postcolonial

Barrett, Michele. Women’s Oppression Today: Problems in Marxist Feminist Analysis.

Bhabha, Homi J. “Signs Taken for Wonders: Questions of Ambivalence and Authority under a Tree Outside Delhi, May 1817”. Critical Inquiry 12 (1985): 144-165.

---. “The Other Question: Difference, Discrimination and the Discourse of Colonialism”.

---. “DissemiNation: Time, Narrative and the Margins of the Modern Nation”.

Bhattacharya, Haridas. The Cultural Heritage of India. Vol.IV. Calcutta: The Ramakrishna

Mission Institute of Culture, 1937.

University Press, 1913.

Caldwell, Joan. “Margaret Laurence: In Search of Ancestors”.

---. “Time and Journey in Novels of Anita Desai and Margaret Laurence”.

Gardiner, Judith Kegan. “Mind Mother: Psychoanalysis and Feminism”. Making a Maeser, Angelika. “Finding the Mother: The Individuation of Laurence’s Heroines”.

Ortner, Sherry B. “Is Female to Male as Nature is to Culture?” Woman, Culture and 67-87.

Rao, Vimala. “Anita Desai’s Where Shall We Go This Summer?: An Analysis”.

Ritts, Morton. “A Diviner's Life: Margaret Laurence's Memoir Bares Her Roots”.

Sethi, Sunil. “Interview with Anita Desai”. India Today 1-15 December 980.

Soyinka, Wole. “Twice Bitten: The Fate of Africa’s Culture Producers”.

Vijaykumar, T. "Post-Colonial or Postcolonial? Relocating the Hyphen". *Interrogating..."

