Acknowledgments

No human endeavour would be complete without acknowledging those who contributed towards its successful completion. I would therefore like to thank a whole lot of people who helped directly or indirectly in this endeavour.

I would like to start with thanking my parents who imbibed in me hard work and perseverance without which no study especially research work is conceivable.

I acknowledge all my family members for their blessings, support, and love, especially my father-in-law for his constant encouragement and practical day-to-day support.

My husband for being a moral support always and for making constant adjustments in his own work schedule. His encouraging words always helped me relieve the stress of working long hours. My children Arunima and Raman for being emotionally connected to me despite my unavailability to them quite often.

Sincere appreciation and gratitude is due to my supervisors, Dr. Naveen Kumar and Dr. Vasudha Bhatnagar who have taken time out of their busy schedules and have provided invaluable guidance and assistance whenever required. Working with them had been a great learning experience. I thank them for having trust and confidence in me and the subject.

I can never forget to acknowledge my family members, Poonam, Nishi, Deepak, Jyoti, Swati, Monika, Pravesh, Rakesh, Pankaj, Sunesh, Neha, Megha, Ayush, Aakash, Shruti, Angel, Aditya, Gayatri, Isha, Aaroosh, Shiven, who would ensure there is never a dull moment around me and always provided the much needed positive energy.
